

Apples Quiz: Trivia Questions and Answers

1. Which region is considered the apple-tree homeland?

- The North Africa
- The Central Asia
- The South America

2. What country is the largest producer of apples?

- The USA
- China
- New Zealand

3. What does apple symbolize in heraldry?

- Peace
- Prosperity
- Freedom

4. What was the length of the longest apple peel inscribed into the Guinness Book of Records?

- 37 meters 11 centimeters
- 45 meters 25 centimeters
- 52 meters 51 centimeters

5. Is it true that the apple tree planted in 1647 by an American Peter Stuyvesant in Manhattan has not only survived until our time but is still bearing fruits?

- Yes
- No

6. How many calories does a medium-sized apple contain?

- 80
- 65
- 90

7. Which fairy tale character was poisoned by an apple?

- Rapunzel
- Red Hood
- Snow White

8. Which city is also known as "The Big Apple"?

- London
- Paris
- New York

9. Is it true that in Great Britain the hybrid of an apple and tomato was discovered? According to its color and texture, they resemble tomatoes but grow on the usual apple trees.

- Yes

No

Apples Quiz: Trivia Questions and Answers

Right answers

1. Which region is considered the apple-tree homeland?
The Central Asia
2. What country is the largest producer of apples?
China
3. What does apple symbolize in heraldry?
Peace
4. What was the length of the longest apple peel inscribed into the Guinness Book of Records?
52 meters 51 centimeters
5. Is it true that the apple tree planted in 1647 by an American Peter Stuyvesant in Manhattan has not only survived until our time but is still bearing fruits?
Yes
6. How many calories does a medium-sized apple contain?
80
7. Which fairy tale character was poisoned by an apple?
Snow White
8. Which city is also known as "The Big Apple"?
New York
9. Is it true that in Great Britain the hybrid of an apple and tomato was discovered? According to its color and texture, they resemble tomatoes but grow on the usual apple trees.
Yes