

Geography Quiz: Try to Answer 20 Trivia Questions Correctly

1. Between which nations runs the longest continuous land border in the world?

- Between the U.S. and Canada
- Between Russia and Kazakhstan
- Between China and Mongolia

2. Which continent has the largest number of countries?

- Africa
- Eurasia
- South America

3. Which geographic feature located in Brazil is called Iguazu?

- Lake
- Waterfall
- Canyon

4. How many boroughs are part of New York City?

- 5
- 6
- 7

5. Which of these ocean ridges is located on the bottom of the Pacific Ocean?

- Maldives Ridge
- Hawaiian Ridge
- Mendeleev Ridge

6. Choose the name of the longest continental mountain system.

- Andes.
- Cordeleras
- Himalayas.

7. Which of these countries is located above the Arctic Circle?

- Norway
- Great Britain
- Ireland

8. Which cape is the southernmost point of Africa?

- Cape of Good Hope
- Cape Roca
- Cape Agulhas

9. Which city is the administrative center of Hawaii, the 50th state of the United States?

- Honolulu
- Male
- Suva

10. In which country is the world's largest source of fresh, non-freezing water located?

- India
- Canada
- Russia

11. Which sea washes the Sahara Desert, the largest hot desert on the planet, to the east?

- The Red Sea
- The Mediterranean Sea
- The Arabian Sea.

12. Which of these rivers flows away from the equator?

- Amazon
- Nile
- Mississippi

13. Which country does not have an official constitution?

- Israel
- Singapore
- Bolivia

14. On which continent is the Appalachian mountain system located?

- North America
- South America
- Australia

15. Which country owns the island of Taiwan?

- Malaysia
- Japan

China

16. Which of these lakes is larger than the other two in area?

Baikal

Issyk-Kul

Ontario

17. What is the name of the group of islands that includes Cuba, Haiti, Jamaica, and Puerto Rico?

The Bahamas

The Azores

The Greater Antilles

18. Which ocean basin does the Baffin Sea belong to?

The Atlantic Ocean

The Pacific Ocean

The Arctic Ocean

19. Which archipelago is separated from the continent by the Strait of Magellan?

Novaya Zemlya

Tierra del Fuego

The Bismarck Archipelago.

20. What is the name of the bay that juts into the land on the north side of Australia?

The Gulf of Carpentaria

The Great Australian

The Bay of Biscay

Geography Quiz: Try to Answer 20 Trivia Questions Correctly

Right answers

1. Between which nations runs the longest continuous land border in the world?
Between Russia and Kazakhstan
2. Which continent has the largest number of countries?
Eurasia
3. Which geographic feature located in Brazil is called Iguazu?
Waterfall
4. How many boroughs are part of New York City?
5
5. Which of these ocean ridges is located on the bottom of the Pacific Ocean?
Hawaiian Ridge
6. Choose the name of the longest continental mountain system.
Cordeleras
7. Which of these countries is located above the Arctic Circle?
Norway
8. Which cape is the southernmost point of Africa?
Cape Agulhas
9. Which city is the administrative center of Hawaii, the 50th state of the United States?
Honolulu
10. In which country is the world's largest source of fresh, non-freezing water located?
Canada
11. Which sea washes the Sahara Desert, the largest hot desert on the planet, to the east?
The Red Sea
12. Which of these rivers flows away from the equator?
Nile
13. Which country does not have an official constitution?
Israel
14. On which continent is the Appalachian mountain system located?
North America
15. Which country owns the island of Taiwan?
China
16. Which of these lakes is larger than the other two in area?
Baikal
17. What is the name of the group of islands that includes Cuba, Haiti, Jamaica, and Puerto Rico?
The Greater Antilles

18. Which ocean basin does the Baffin Sea belong to?

The Arctic Ocean

19. Which archipelago is separated from the continent by the Strait of Magellan?

Tierra del Fuego

20. What is the name of the bay that juts into the land on the north side of Australia?

The Gulf of Carpentaria