

Quiz: Guess a Wild Animal from a Photo

1. This animal is one of the most colorful and colorful of the primates. The bony grooves along its nose are colored blue or blue.

- mandrill
- baboon
- dril

2. This bird of prey very rarely flies and prefers to hunt by moving on foot on the ground.

- ostrich
- casuar
- secretary bird

3. These lizards are often kept at home as pets. The sex of an individual can be determined by looking closely at the underside of its hind legs.

- varan
- iguana
- skink

4. This animal is perfectly adapted to life in arid regions. They are what the locals call "ships of the desert".

- camel
- llama
- vicuna

5. This beetle looks kind of scary. But only the males have such a large horn, the females have a very small horn and just look like a tubercle.

- crunch
- scarab
- dynastinae

6. This small deer has horns decorating the head only on males. They inhabit the territory of Eurasia.

- barassinga
- roe deer
- musk deer

7. This bird is a scavenger, finding prey by sight. It can hover high in the sky for long periods of time in search of prey.

- buzzard
- vulture
- osprey

8. This bird tries to ward off small predators from its nest with an oily, foul-smelling liquid.

- woodpecker
- caesar
- hoopoe

9. This big cat is listed in the Red Book. It lives exclusively in the mountains of Asia.

- jaguar
- jaguar
- ounce

10. This predatory insect lives on land as an adult and its larvae live in water.

- ruddleworm
- dragonfly
- weeper

11. This fish lives in mangrove forests. At low tide it can go on land, and at high tide it can even climb trees.

- sturgeon
- periophthalmus
- pike

12. This marine mammal leads an isolated lifestyle. It makes a nest for its cubs in a burrow dug in a snowdrift.

- walrus
- sea lion
- pusa

13. These fish live on coral reefs and use actinia to protect themselves from predators. The fish of this species served as the prototype for the main character in the cartoon film Finding Nemo.

- amphiprion
- surgeonfish
- parrotfish

14. These insects live in large colonies and form three castes: females, males, and workers.

- ant
- bee
- termite

15. The image of this small animal or its fur can be found on coats of arms. It itself symbolizes purity, and its fur symbolizes power and dominance.

- weasel
- marten
- ermine

16. This animal is covered in thorns and has no teeth. And it feeds on termites and ants.

- echidna
- hedgehog
- porcupine.

17. This bird is famous for being so engrossed in its rut that it does not notice the hunter approaching it.

- grouse
- pheasant
- wood grouse

18. This animal is a formidable enemy of poisonous snakes and is famous for its ability to hunt them.

- mongoose
- ferret
- marten

19. This animal is the second largest among rodents. It lives along the banks of rivers in burrows or huts, the entrance to which is under water.

- otter
- muskrat
- beaver

20. This animal lives in America, where locals call it the Buffalo.

- bison
- musk ox
- bison

Quiz: Guess a Wild Animal from a Photo

Right answers

1. This animal is one of the most colorful and colorful of the primates. The bony grooves along its nose are colored blue or blue.

mandrill

2. This bird of prey very rarely flies and prefers to hunt by moving on foot on the ground.

secretary bird

3. These lizards are often kept at home as pets. The sex of an individual can be determined by looking closely at the underside of its hind legs.

iguana

4. This animal is perfectly adapted to life in arid regions. They are what the locals call "ships of the desert".

camel

5. This beetle looks kind of scary. But only the males have such a large horn, the females have a very small horn and just look like a tubercle.

dynastinae

6. This small deer has horns decorating the head only on males. They inhabit the territory of Eurasia.

roe deer

7. This bird is a scavenger, finding prey by sight. It can hover high in the sky for long periods of time in search of prey.

vulture

8. This bird tries to ward off small predators from its nest with an oily, foul-smelling liquid.

hoopoe

9. This big cat is listed in the Red Book. It lives exclusively in the mountains of Asia.

ounce

10. This predatory insect lives on land as an adult and its larvae live in water.

dragonfly

11. This fish lives in mangrove forests. At low tide it can go on land, and at high tide it can even climb trees.

periophthalmus

12. This marine mammal leads an isolated lifestyle. It makes a nest for its cubs in a burrow dug in a snowdrift.

pusa

13. These fish live on coral reefs and use actinia to protect themselves from predators. The fish of this species served as the prototype for the main character in the cartoon film Finding Nemo.

amphiprion

14. These insects live in large colonies and form three castes: females, males, and workers.

ant

15. The image of this small animal or its fur can be found on coats of arms. It itself symbolizes purity, and its fur symbolizes power and dominance.

ermine

16. This animal is covered in thorns and has no teeth. And it feeds on termites and ants.

echidna

17. This bird is famous for being so engrossed in its rut that it does not notice the hunter approaching it.

wood grouse

18. This animal is a formidable enemy of poisonous snakes and is famous for its ability to hunt them.

mongoose

19. This animal is the second largest among rodents. It lives along the banks of rivers in burrows or huts, the entrance to which is under water.

beaver

20. This animal lives in America, where locals call it the Buffalo.

bison