

Abraham Maslow Quiz: 10 Trivia Questions with Answers

1. In what country was Abraham Maslow born?

- USA
- Ukraine
- Israel

2. Abraham Maslow is considered the founder of which branch of psychology?

- Psychogenetics
- Differential psychology
- Humanistic psychology

3. In the early 1940s of the 20th century, American psychologist Abraham Maslow was a proponent of the behaviorist approach. Whose work in this field did he admire?

- Wilhelm Wundt
- Carl Jung.
- John B. Watson

4. In 1937 Abraham Maslow accepted an offer to become a professor at the college where he worked for 14 years. Which institution is the one in question?

- Brooklyn College
- Harvey Mudd College
- Benedict College

5. In which city is the University of Wisconsin where Maslow studied?

- New York
- In Chicago.
- Madison.

6. What did Maslow become at the University of Wisconsin in 1934?

- Undergraduate.
- Doctor of Science.
- Master.

7. At which institution did Maslow begin working in 1934?

- Columbia University
- At the Psychiatric Hospital.
- City College.

8. Abraham Maslow was active in the study of self-actualizing individuals. What does the term "self-actualization" mean?

- It is a person's desire to discover and develop his or her fullest personal capabilities.
- It is a person's exploration of his or her own mental and physical characteristics, making sense of himself or herself.
- It is the realization of personal potential, the realization of one's human purpose and vocation.

9. What is the shape of the model that embodies Abraham Maslow's ideas about the hierarchy of needs theory?

- An ellipse
- A sphere
- A pyramid

10. Name the top rung of human needs in Maslow's hierarchical model.

- The need for self-actualization
- The need for respect
- The need for security

Abraham Maslow Quiz: 10 Trivia Questions with Answers

Right answers

1. In what country was Abraham Maslow born?

USA

2. Abraham Maslow is considered the founder of which branch of psychology?

Humanistic psychology

3. In the early 1940s of the 20th century, American psychologist Abraham Maslow was a proponent of the behaviorist approach. Whose work in this field did he admire?

John B. Watson

4. In 1937 Abraham Maslow accepted an offer to become a professor at the college where he worked for 14 years. Which institution is the one in question?

Brooklyn College

5. In which city is the University of Wisconsin where Maslow studied?

Madison.

6. What did Maslow become at the University of Wisconsin in 1934?

Doctor of Science.

7. At which institution did Maslow begin working in 1934?

Columbia University

8. Abraham Maslow was active in the study of self-actualizing individuals. What does the term "self-actualization" mean?

It is a person's desire to discover and develop his or her fullest personal capabilities.

9. What is the shape of the model that embodies Abraham Maslow's ideas about the hierarchy of needs theory?

A pyramid

10. Name the top rung of human needs in Maslow's hierarchical model.

The need for self-actualization