

Animals Quiz: What do You Know About Their Lives?

1. Which animals are considered pets?

- Animals that have been domesticated by man
- Any animal that lives with humans
- Animals that could not live without humans

2. What are companion animals for?

- To bequeath some of your money to them
- For recreation, pleasure, and companionship
- For eating together.

3. Which animal is called a dromedary?

- A one-humped camel
- Alpaca
- Fretka

4. Which group does the peacock belong to?

- Anseriformes
- Gruiformes
- Galliformes

5. Are birds social animals?

- No, as their intelligence does not allow them to communicate.
- Only parrots.
- Yes, because birds communicate with each other using visual and audible signals and can perform social actions.

6. How does Père David's deer, which is listed in the Red Book, differ from other members of the family?

- Père David's deer likes to stay in water for long periods and swims well.
- He doesn't just eat plants.

- Its body structure prevents it from having large offspring, making Père David's deer on the verge of extinction.

7. What is one of the distinguishing characteristics of big cats from small cats?

- Big cats live in family packs.
- Big cats, unlike small cats, can growl.
- Only small cats can be domesticated.

8. Is there such an animal as the chupacabra known to science?

- No, it's a character in an urban legend.
- Yes, its existence has been confirmed by numerous attacks on animals.

9. Which of these animals is famous for cannibalism?

- The Giant Wolf, nicknamed Gergo, which inhabited the forests of Hungary in the mid-18th century.
- Gustav the Nile Crocodile, still alive today, has killed about 200-300 people in the last few years, and possibly more.
- The infamous infuriating African Savannah Elephant, nicknamed Dubaku.

10. What were Earth's first animals born in space?

- Rats
- Dogs
- Cockroaches

11. Which bird became extinct because European colonists exterminated it for its delicious meat and the pigs, cats, and monkeys brought in by the sailors ravaged their nests?

- Dodo
- Reunion ground goose
- The relict pink-footed pigeon

12. Which animal is the largest in the world?

- African elephant
- Blue whale
- Whale shark

13. Who are the Rhesus macaque?

- Monkeys with an unusual blood color.
- Monkeys are the best at communicating with humans.
- The species of macaque.

14. Which breed of dog is described as elegant, aristocratic, with a sense of dignity?

- Beaver Yorkie
- Chihuahua
- Maltese

15. Which animals usually manage to pass a "mirror test" showing signs of self-awareness?

- Elephants
- Parrots
- Lions

16. Why are dogs with a shortened skull face not recommended by some airlines around the world to be carried on their flights?

- These breeds cannot tolerate engine noise.
- Extreme temperatures and thin air pose an additional risk to the lives of these breeds.
- These breeds are not technically suited for regular flights.

17. What is zoolatry?

- Images of animals in ancient manuscripts.
- The science of animals.
- A set of rituals and beliefs associated with the religious veneration of animals.

18. What is an unstudied physiological feature of cats?

- Skin marginal sac on the ears.
- The ability to turn the head 180 degrees.
- How the iris regulates the amount of light entering the eye.

Animals Quiz: What do You Know About Their Lives?

Right answers

1. Which animals are considered pets?

Animals that have been domesticated by man

2. What are companion animals for?

For recreation, pleasure, and companionship

3. Which animal is called a dromedary?

A one-humped camel

4. Which group does the peacock belong to?

Galliformes

5. Are birds social animals?

Yes, because birds communicate with each other using visual and audible signals and can perform social actions.

6. How does Père David's deer, which is listed in the Red Book, differ from other members of the family?

Père David's deer likes to stay in water for long periods and swims well.

7. What is one of the distinguishing characteristics of big cats from small cats?

Big cats, unlike small cats, can growl.

8. Is there such an animal as the chupacabra known to science?

No, it's a character in an urban legend.

9. Which of these animals is famous for cannibalism?

Gustav the Nile Crocodile, still alive today, has killed about 200-300 people in the last few years, and possibly more.

10. What were Earth's first animals born in space?

Cockroaches

11. Which bird became extinct because European colonists exterminated it for its delicious meat and the pigs, cats, and monkeys brought in by the sailors ravaged their nests?

Dodo

12. Which animal is the largest in the world?

Blue whale

13. Who are the Rhesus macaque?

The species of macaque.

14. Which breed of dog is described as elegant, aristocratic, with a sense of dignity?

Maltese

15. Which animals usually manage to pass a "mirror test" showing signs of self-awareness?

Elephants

16. Why are dogs with a shortened skull face not recommended by some airlines around the world to be carried on their flights?

Extreme temperatures and thin air pose an additional risk to the lives of these breeds.

17. What is zoolatry?

A set of rituals and beliefs associated with the religious veneration of animals.

18. What is an unstudied physiological feature of cats?

Skin marginal sac on the ears.