

Art Nouveau Architecture Quiz: Trivia Questions with Answers

1. What is a distinctive feature of Art Nouveau architecture?

- Decorativeness, rejection of classical lines and angles
- A lot of small details and bright colors.
- Heavyweight shapes

2. What was built in the Art Nouveau style of architecture?

- Churches and apartment buildings
- Train stations and bridges
- Industrial pavilions

All answers are correct

3. Spanish architect, one of the brightest representatives of the Art Nouveau style in architecture. One of his greatest creations is the Sagrada Familia in Barcelona.

- Antonio Gaudi
- Santiago Calatrava
- Rafael Moneo

4. Which of the two buildings in St. Petersburg was created in the Art Nouveau style of architecture?

- The Singer Company House (House of the Book)
- Eliseevsky store
- Both

5. In which U.S. city did a prominent school of Art Nouveau architecture emerge after a great fire in 1871?

- New York
- Chicago
- Los Angeles

6. Architect who was the founder of the Art Nouveau style in Scotland.

- Eden Lechner
- Hendrik Berlage
- Charles Rennie Mackintosh

7. Otto Wagner was the founder of which school of Art Nouveau architecture?

- Paris school
- Vienna school
- Moscow school
- Berlin school

8. Who was the architect of one of the Art Nouveau buildings in Paris called Le Céramic Hôtel?

- Richard Riemerschmid
- Victor Horta

Jules Aimé Lavirotte

9. The son of this great architect, who was the founder of the Art Nouveau style in Finnish architecture, became an equally famous furniture designer.

Eliel Saarinen

Mikhail Eisenstein

Edén Lehner

10. Which style historically preceded Art Nouveau architecture?

Eclecticism

Constructivism

Deconstructivism

11. How many parts make up the famous Hôtel Tassel in Brussels, built by the Belgian architect Victor Horta in 1893-1894.

Two

Three

Five

12. What was the name given to the Viennese version of Architectural Art Nouveau, thanks to the exhibition and creative association of young Austrian artists of the same name?

Vienna Secession

Viennese Art

Viennese Art Nouveau

13. How much attention does Architectural Art Nouveau pay to comfort?

Not at all

Little attention

Much attention

14. In which European city were the subway entrance pavilions created in the Art Nouveau style by the famous architect Hector Guimard?

Paris

Brussels

Berlin

Art Nouveau Architecture Quiz: Trivia Questions with Answers

Right answers

1. What is a distinctive feature of Art Nouveau architecture?
Decorativeness, rejection of classical lines and angles
2. What was built in the Art Nouveau style of architecture?
All answers are correct
3. Spanish architect, one of the brightest representatives of the Art Nouveau style in architecture. One of his greatest creations is the Sagrada Familia in Barcelona.
Antonio Gaudi
4. Which of the two buildings in St. Petersburg was created in the Art Nouveau style of architecture?
Both
5. In which U.S. city did a prominent school of Art Nouveau architecture emerge after a great fire in 1871?
Chicago
6. Architect who was the founder of the Art Nouveau style in Scotland.
Charles Rennie Mackintosh
7. Otto Wagner was the founder of which school of Art Nouveau architecture?
Vienna school
8. Who was the architect of one of the Art Nouveau buildings in Paris called Le Céramic Hôtel?
Jules Aimé Lavirotte
9. The son of this great architect, who was the founder of the Art Nouveau style in Finnish architecture, became an equally famous furniture designer.
Eliel Saarinen
10. Which style historically preceded Art Nouveau architecture?
Eclecticism
11. How many parts make up the famous Hôtel Tassel in Brussels, built by the Belgian architect Victor Horta in 1893-1894.
Three
12. What was the name given to the Viennese version of Architectural Art Nouveau, thanks to the exhibition and creative association of young Austrian artists of the same name?
Vienna Secession
13. How much attention does Architectural Art Nouveau pay to comfort?
Much attention
14. In which European city were the subway entrance pavilions created in the Art Nouveau style by the famous architect Hector Guimard?
Paris