

Art Quiz: Guess the Great Artist from His Self-Portrait

1. This is a self-portrait of a Flemish painter, diplomat and collector who lived at the turn of the 16th and 17th centuries.
  - Pieter Rubens
  - Jan van Eyck
  - Albrecht Dürer

2. This is a self-portrait of the author of the famous painting Bathing the Red Horse, painted by him in 1912 and now in the collection of the Tretyakov Gallery.
  - Kuzma Petrov-Vodkin
  - Pyotr Konchalovsky
  - Mikhail Vrubel

3. Russian marine painter, painter of the Main Naval Staff, member and honorary member of the Imperial Academy of Arts, honorary member of the Academies of Arts in Rome, Paris, Amsterdam, Stuttgart, and Florence.
  - Ivan Aivazovsky
  - Viktor Borisov-Musatov
  - Karl Bryullov

4. In this self-portrait you see the Italian painter, author of the Sistine Madonna, a favorite painting of Fyodor Dostoyevsky.
  - Titian
  - Michelangelo
  - Raphael Santi

5. This is one of three self-portraits painted by the famous German artist. It is called Self-Portrait at Twenty-Eight.
  - Otto Dix
  - Albrecht Dürer
  - Max Liebermann

6. This is an alleged self-portrait by the famous Italian artist. There is no doubt that it is the work of this artist, but some art historians do not believe that it depicts him.

- Botticelli
- Raphael
- Leonardo da Vinci

7. This Dutch post-impressionist painter produced more than 2,100 works in just over a decade, including several self-portraits. This self-portrait was painted in 1889.

- Vincent van Gogh
- Paul Cézanne
- Paul Gauguin

8. This picture depicts the most "expensive" artist in the world according to expert estimates.

- Juan Gris
- Pablo Picasso
- Vincent van Gogh

9. This is a self-portrait of the French painter, graphic artist, and sculptor, one of the main representatives of Impressionism.

- Peter Rubens
- Pierre Renoir
- Rembrandt

10. This Dutch painter was born into the large family of a wealthy mill owner in Leiden.

- Rembrandt
- Frans Hals
- Jan Vermeer

11. This Italian painter's real name was Alessandro di Mariano di Vanni Filippi, and he became famous by the nickname "barrel," which was passed down to him from his fat older brother Giovanni.

- Gregorio Fernandez
- Michelangelo
- Sandro Botticelli

12. This famous Russian artist was born into a family of hereditary artists. So his first teacher was his father.

- Ilya Repin
- Karl Bryullov
- Alexei Savrasov

13. This canvas is called Soft Self-Portrait with Grilled Bacon. And yes, it is also a self-portrait painted by a Spanish surrealist painter. Who is its author?

- René Magritte
- Max Ernst
- Salvador Dali

Art Quiz: Guess the Great Artist from His Self-Portrait

Right answers

1. This is a self-portrait of a Flemish painter, diplomat and collector who lived at the turn of the 16th and 17th centuries.
Pieter Rubens
2. This is a self-portrait of the author of the famous painting Bathing the Red Horse, painted by him in 1912 and now in the collection of the Tretyakov Gallery.
Kuzma Petrov-Vodkin
3. Russian marine painter, painter of the Main Naval Staff, member and honorary member of the Imperial Academy of Arts, honorary member of the Academies of Arts in Rome, Paris, Amsterdam, Stuttgart, and Florence.
Ivan Aivazovsky
4. In this self-portrait you see the Italian painter, author of the Sistine Madonna, a favorite painting of Fyodor Dostoyevsky.
Raphael Santi
5. This is one of three self-portraits painted by the famous German artist. It is called Self-Portrait at Twenty-Eight.
Albrecht Dürer
6. This is an alleged self-portrait by the famous Italian artist. There is no doubt that it is the work of this artist, but some art historians do not believe that it depicts him.
Leonardo da Vinci
7. This Dutch post-impressionist painter produced more than 2,100 works in just over a decade, including several self-portraits. This self-portrait was painted in 1889.
Vincent van Gogh
8. This picture depicts the most "expensive" artist in the world according to expert estimates.
Pablo Picasso
9. This is a self-portrait of the French painter, graphic artist, and sculptor, one of the main representatives of Impressionism.
Pierre Renoir
10. This Dutch painter was born into the large family of a wealthy mill owner in Leiden.
Rembrandt
11. This Italian painter's real name was Alessandro di Mariano di Vanni Filippi, and he became famous by the nickname "barrel," which was passed down to him from his fat older brother Giovanni.
Sandro Botticelli
12. This famous Russian artist was born into a family of hereditary artists. So his first teacher was his father.
Karl Bryullov

13. This canvas is called Soft Self-Portrait with Grilled Bacon. And yes, it is also a self-portrait painted by a Spanish surrealist painter. Who is its author?
Salvador Dali