

Erudition Quiz: 20 Questions That Not Everyone Can Answer

1. What is the name of a summary of a work that conveys its entire essence?

- Disclaimer
- Synopsis
- An homage

2. Name the literary hero with superpowers who was invented by Herbert Wells.

- Amphibian Man
- Frankenstein's Monster
- Invisible Man

3. What did Alexander Fleming do for medicine and humanity?

- He performed the first successful limb amputation.
- He discovered penicillin.
- Discovered the blood groups.

4. What color is the giraffe's tongue?

- Pink
- Dark green
- Black or blue

5. What is the name of the volcano located near Naples, Italy?

- Etna
- Vesuvius.
- Krakatoa

6. What country has the tallest people on the planet?

- Denmark
- The Netherlands
- Switzerland

7. What was the name of Napoleon Bonaparte's favorite horse that accompanied the warlord to the Battle of Austerlitz?

- Morton
- Marengo
- Eclipse.

8. What is ontogeny?

- The development of an individual species with certain characteristics
- Individual development of an organism
- Species-specific changes that distinguish living things

9. In which country is mashed potatoes and cabbage considered the national dish?

- Belgium
- In Poland
- Ireland

10. Choose the tallest building in the United States.

- World Trade Center
- Empire State Building
- Willistower

11. In which ocean are the Galapagos Islands located?

- In the Indian Ocean
- In the Pacific Ocean
- In the Atlantic Ocean

12. Which museum collected a collection of sculptures by Auguste Rodin, including the famous "Thinker"?

- Rodin Museum in Paris
- Rijksmuseum Amsterdam
- Museo del Prado in Madrid

13. Which ancient scientist adhered to vegetarianism?

- Democritus
- Pythagoras
- Aristotle

14. Which desert occupies the southern part of Africa?

- Gobi
- Kalahari
- Sahara

15. Which chemical element is in the greatest concentration in the Sun?

- Hydrogen
- Helium

Carbon

16. Who was the first person to win the Nobel Prize in Physics, and for what?

- Antoine Becquerel for his discovery of radioactivity
- Wilhelm Röntgen for his discovery of X-rays
- Pierre and Marie Curie for their study of radiation

17. Choose the smallest antelope native to Africa.

- Kudu.
- Impala
- Dikdiki

Erudition Quiz: 20 Questions That Not Everyone Can Answer

Right answers

1. What is the name of a summary of a work that conveys its entire essence?
Synopsis
2. Name the literary hero with superpowers who was invented by Herbert Wells.
Invisible Man
3. What did Alexander Fleming do for medicine and humanity?
He discovered penicillin.
4. What color is the giraffe's tongue?
Black or blue
5. What is the name of the volcano located near Naples, Italy?
Vesuvius.
6. What country has the tallest people on the planet?
The Netherlands
7. What was the name of Napoleon Bonaparte's favorite horse that accompanied the warlord to the Battle of Austerlitz?
Marengo
8. What is ontogeny?
Individual development of an organism
9. In which country is mashed potatoes and cabbage considered the national dish?
Ireland
10. Choose the tallest building in the United States.
World Trade Center
11. In which ocean are the Galapagos Islands located?
In the Pacific Ocean
12. Which museum collected a collection of sculptures by Auguste Rodin, including the famous "Thinker"?
Rodin Museum in Paris
13. Which ancient scientist adhered to vegetarianism?
Pythagoras
14. Which desert occupies the southern part of Africa?
Kalahari
15. Which chemical element is in the greatest concentration in the Sun?
Hydrogen
16. Who was the first person to win the Nobel Prize in Physics, and for what?
Wilhelm Röntgen for his discovery of X-rays

17. Choose the smallest antelope native to Africa.

Dikdiki