

History Quiz: The Everyday Life of the Ancient Greeks and Ancient Greek Science

1. What types of clothing were the ancient Greeks divided into?

- Outer and outerwear
- Dressy and casual
- Spring and winter

2. Which ancient Greek scholar argued that everything that exists is made up of atoms?

- Plato
- Democritus

Theseus

3. Who is the author of History, the first fully preserved historical work of European literature?

- Lycurgus
- Solon
- Herodotus

4. On ordinary days the Greeks traditionally ate ...

- olives and fruit
- wine and meat
- vegetables and fish

5. This scholar presented his thoughts in the form of dialogues and arguments.

- Plato
- Democritus
- King Leonidas

6. The word "philosophy" translates from Ancient Greek as ...

- Conversations about life
- Love of wisdom
- Teaching about kindness

7. Every guest in ancient Greece, upon leaving a feast, received from the host ...

- a bundle of food (a guest)
- a slave or a slave girl
- a parting word

8. Choose the name of the ancient Greek god of healing (medicine).

- Ares
- Panacea
- Asclepius

9. The main occupations of the ancient Greek woman were ...

- reading and needlework
- homemaking
- trading in the market

10. The most famous ancient Greek physician is ...

- Sophocles
- Hippocrates
- Dionysus

11. Which Athenian philosopher tried to find the answer to the question, "What is beautiful?" and to characterize the very essence of beauty?

- Plato
- Socrates
- Democritus

12. Who wore a chiton in ancient Greece?

- only men
- only women
- both men and women

13. What was the small and rounded ancient Greek vessel ariballus used to store?

- Wine
- Fragrant oils
- Women's jewelry

14. The Theogony is one of the first ancient Greek mythological poems. Who was its author?

- Hesiod
- Homer
- Theocritus

History Quiz: The Everyday Life of the Ancient Greeks and Ancient Greek Science

Right answers

1. What types of clothing were the ancient Greeks divided into?
Outer and outerwear
2. Which ancient Greek scholar argued that everything that exists is made up of atoms?
Democritus
3. Who is the author of History, the first fully preserved historical work of European literature?
Herodotus
4. On ordinary days the Greeks traditionally ate ...
vegetables and fish
5. This scholar presented his thoughts in the form of dialogues and arguments.
Plato
6. The word "philosophy" translates from Ancient Greek as ...
Love of wisdom
7. Every guest in ancient Greece, upon leaving a feast, received from the host ...
a bundle of food (a guest)
8. Choose the name of the ancient Greek god of healing (medicine).
Asclepius
9. The main occupations of the ancient Greek woman were ...
homemaking
10. The most famous ancient Greek physician is ...
Hippocrates
11. Which Athenian philosopher tried to find the answer to the question, "What is beautiful?" and to characterize the very essence of beauty?
Plato
12. Who wore a chiton in ancient Greece?
both men and women
13. What was the small and rounded ancient Greek vessel ariballus used to store?
Fragrant oils
14. The Theogony is one of the first ancient Greek mythological poems. Who was its author?
Hesiod