

Lexicon Quiz: 20 Trivia Questions

1. A lipophrenic is a person who ...

- saddens a lot and for a long time for no reason
- shows aggression for no reason
- loves order, even in the smallest things, and is always tidying up

2. Can you find synonyms for the word "amphibolic"?

- arrogance, hubris
- ambiguous, contradictory
- indifference, listlessness, indifference

3. What in literature is understood by the word "counterpoint"?

- The opposition of several plot lines.
- Any opposition to the main characters.
- Part of a storyline that runs parallel to the main one.

4. What is "absolute hearing"?

- The natural ability to accurately reproduce any sound heard.
- The musical skill of playing any melody on any instrument by ear.
- The ability to remember the pitch of a sound accurately enough to identify and name any notes heard.

5. Petroglyphs are ...

- carved or painted images on a stone base
- any ancient symbols
- ancient images on papyrus

6. Tautology is not uncommon both in everyday speech and in the articles we read on the internet. What does it mean?

- Distortion of meaning, by substituting concepts.
- Use of similar words in the same sentence.
- Repetition of the same thing in other words, without clarifying its meaning.

7. Congenial is a vivid word that was formed from the word "genius." What is its meaning?

- Genius beyond measure.
- Similar in spirit, way of thinking, talent.
- Creating the illusion of genius.

8. What process is referred to as in vitro?

- Any experiment performed in a sterile room.
- The process of transforming a substance.
- Conducting experiments outside of a living organism.

9. What in psychology is meant by the term "mental movement"?

- Trust
- Emotion
- Curiosity

10. What does "labialization" mean?

- Promotion of your ideas by a team of like-minded people.
- The protrusion of the lips forward and/or giving them a rounded shape when articulating a sound.
- A physical condition in which there is an extreme degree of personality disintegration.

11. Where and how is the device of assonance used?

- In literature, it is a technique of sound organization of a text, especially a poem, by the repetition of vowel sounds/
- It is a psychological method of determining the level of discomfort.
- In philosophy, it is a statement of the fact of an occurring connection.

12. What in the film industry is meant by the term "machinima"?

- The process of replacing manual labor on a film set.
- A way of displaying short video clips shot using the graphics engine of a computer game.
- Mass scenes with a large number of participants.

13. What does the term "ellipse" mean in literature?

- A narrative device for omitting part of a sequence of events.
- An artistic figure indicating some historical counterpart.
- A device consisting in the use of words in a distorted sense.

14. What does the word "touché" mean when referring to an argument?

- A call to end an argument.
- Acknowledgement of your opponent's victory.
- A complete rejection of your opponent's arguments.

15. What is pagination?

- In publishing, an orderly numbering of pages.

- A large vocabulary.
- In librarianship, the numbering of books in a register.

16. What is one meaning of the word "missa" in Latin?

- liberation
- shine
- destination

17. What is called "internalities" in economics?

- Costs that are not negotiated by the parties at the conclusion of the transaction.
- Savings remaining after all mandatory payments have been paid off.
- Financial diversion from unplanned payments.

18. How does an indifferent person behave?

- indifferent, unconcerned
- according to the situation
- contradictory

19. What reigns supreme in terms of fideism?

- Truth over faith
- Reason over faith
- Faith over reason

20. Gestalt therapy is one of the modern trends in psychotherapy. What does the word "gestalt", from which its name is derived, mean?

- Integral form
- Component of the essence
- Combination of two parts

Lexicon Quiz: 20 Trivia Questions

Right answers

1. A lipophrenic is a person who ...
saddens a lot and for a long time for no reason
2. Can you find synonyms for the word "amphibolic"?
ambiguous, contradictory
3. What in literature is understood by the word "counterpoint"?
The opposition of several plot lines.
4. What is "absolute hearing"?
The ability to remember the pitch of a sound accurately enough to identify and name any notes heard.
5. Petroglyphs are ...
carved or painted images on a stone base
6. Tautology is not uncommon both in everyday speech and in the articles we read on the internet.
What does it mean?
Repetition of the same thing in other words, without clarifying its meaning.
7. Congenial is a vivid word that was formed from the word "genius." What is its meaning?
Similar in spirit, way of thinking, talent.
8. What process is referred to as in vitro?
Conducting experiments outside of a living organism.
9. What in psychology is meant by the term "mental movement"?
Emotion
10. What does "labialization" mean?
The protrusion of the lips forward and/or giving them a rounded shape when articulating a sound.
11. Where and how is the device of assonance used?
In literature, it is a technique of sound organization of a text, especially a poem, by the repetition of vowel sounds/
12. What in the film industry is meant by the term "machinima"?
A way of displaying short video clips shot using the graphics engine of a computer game.
13. What does the term "ellipse" mean in literature?
A narrative device for omitting part of a sequence of events.
14. What does the word "touché" mean when referring to an argument?
Acknowledgement of your opponent's victory.
15. What is pagination?
In publishing, an orderly numbering of pages.
16. What is one meaning of the word "missa" in Latin?
destination

17. What is called "externalities" in economics?

Costs that are not negotiated by the parties at the conclusion of the transaction.

18. How does an indifferent person behave?

indifferent, unconcerned

19. What reigns supreme in terms of fideism?

Faith over reason

20. Gestalt therapy is one of the modern trends in psychotherapy. What does the word "gestalt", from which its name is derived, mean?

Integral form