

Literary Quiz: In the Footsteps of Jack London

1. What country was Jack London a classic writer?

- Canada
- England
- U.S.A.

2. What was the name of Jack London's novel about the confrontation between a young sailor and a schooner captain?

- Seawolf
- SEAL
- Sea lion

3. What did Jack London bring back from his trip to Alaska?

- Skins
- Tsinga
- Gold

4. Which phenomenon is brilliantly portrayed in many of Jack London's novels?

- Gold Rush
- Copper Riot
- Coal Madness

5. Which work of Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels was the starting point in shaping Jack London's socialist views?

- German ideology
- The Manifesto of the Communist Party
- The Theses on Feuerbach

6. For which work did Jack London receive his first royalty, which launched his literary career?

- Typhoon off the coast of Japan
- John the Churned Seed
- The sea wolf

7. What was the name of Jack London's first collection of short stories?

- Grandson of the possum
- Son of a wolf
- Daughter of a monkey

8. Which pirates were not hunted by the heroes of Jack London's Patrol Stories?

- Beaver
- Salmon
- Oyster

9. What was the name of the dog in the story "The Call of the Ancestors"?

Yukon

White Fang

Beck

10. What is the title of Irwin Stone's book about Jack London?

The Sailor in the Saddle

The Furious Wanderer

The throes of joy

11. What saved the scurvy patients in Jack London's story "God's Mistake"?

A bucket of lemons

A barrel of sauerkraut

A sack of potatoes

12. What did Jack London serve a month in jail for after participating in the unemployed march on Washington in 1894?

Fighting with a policeman

Vagrancy

Communist agitation

13. In which film adaptation of Jack London's work was Julbars the dog, a World War II veteran?

White Fang

Call of the ancestors

The brown wolf

14. What Soviet film was made for the 100th anniversary of the writer's birth?

Hearts of Three

The Mexican

Smoke and the baby

Literary Quiz: In the Footsteps of Jack London

Right answers

1. What country was Jack London a classic writer?
U.S.A.
2. What was the name of Jack London's novel about the confrontation between a young sailor and a schooner captain?
Seawolf
3. What did Jack London bring back from his trip to Alaska?
Tsinga
4. Which phenomenon is brilliantly portrayed in many of Jack London's novels?
Gold Rush
5. Which work of Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels was the starting point in shaping Jack London's socialist views?
The Manifesto of the Communist Party
6. For which work did Jack London receive his first royalty, which launched his literary career?
Typhoon off the coast of Japan
7. What was the name of Jack London's first collection of short stories?
Son of a wolf
8. Which pirates were not hunted by the heroes of Jack London's Patrol Stories?
Beaver
9. What was the name of the dog in the story "The Call of the Ancestors"?
Beck
10. What is the title of Irwin Stone's book about Jack London?
The Sailor in the Saddle
11. What saved the scurvy patients in Jack London's story "God's Mistake"?
A sack of potatoes
12. What did Jack London serve a month in jail for after participating in the unemployed march on Washington in 1894?
Vagrancy
13. In which film adaptation of Jack London's work was Julbars the dog, a World War II veteran?
White Fang
14. What Soviet film was made for the 100th anniversary of the writer's birth?
Smoke and the baby