

Mesolithic Quiz: Multiple Choice Trivia Questions with Answers

1. Which two Greek words make up the word Mesolithic?

- From the words "middle" and "age".
- From the words "ancient" and "rock".
- The words "medium" and "stone".

2. Between which ages was the Mesolithic period?

- Between the Paleolithic and Neolithic
- Between Pliocene and Pleistocene

Between Copper and Bronze Ages.

3. Which term is used for Mesolithic cultures outside Northern Europe?

- Epipaleolithic
- Eroliolite
- Mesopaleolithic

4. Where did Mesolithic begin earliest, i.e., about 15,000 years ago?

- In Europe
- Middle East
- Far East

5. Which of the following Mesolithic-type cultures continue to exist in the 21st century?

- Indians of southern California
- Bantu tribes
- Bushmen

6. When did the phenomena characteristic of the European Mesolithic appear in the Americas?

- Around 2000 BC
- Around 4000 BC
- Around 900 BC

7. What else is Mesolithic called?

- Neolithic
- Epipaleolithic
- Paleolithic

8. What territories did people develop during the Mesolithic?

- Ancient China and the Japanese archipelago
- Territories of the Middle East and part of the Pacific Coast
- Territories of Scotland, the Baltic states, and parts of the Arctic coast

9. What differences in art appear in the Mesolithic compared to the previous period?

- Artists begin to depict the object of the hunt rather than the hunters themselves
- Artists begin to depict group scenes of hunting, war
- Artists begin to depict one man

10. Which era is associated with the beginning of the Mesolithic?

- With the end of the last of the ice ages in Europe
- With the end of the Late Proterozoic Ice Age
- With the end of the Early Proterozoic epoch in Europe.

Mesolithic Quiz: Multiple Choice Trivia Questions with Answers

Right answers

1. Which two Greek words make up the word Mesolithic?
The words "medium" and "stone".
2. Between which ages was the Mesolithic period?
Between the Paleolithic and Neolithic
3. Which term is used for Mesolithic cultures outside Northern Europe?
Epipaleolithic
4. Where did Mesolithic begin earliest, i.e., about 15,000 years ago?
Middle East
5. Which of the following Mesolithic-type cultures continue to exist in the 21st century?
Bushmen
6. When did the phenomena characteristic of the European Mesolithic appear in the Americas?
Around 2000 BC
7. What else is Mesolithic called?
Epipaleolithic
8. What territories did people develop during the Mesolithic?
Territories of Scotland, the Baltic states, and parts of the Arctic coast
9. What differences in art appear in the Mesolithic compared to the previous period?
Artists begin to depict group scenes of hunting, war
10. Which era is associated with the beginning of the Mesolithic?
With the end of the last of the ice ages in Europe