

Peony Quiz: Trivia Questions and Answers

1. What is the most common color of a peony?

- Purple
- White
- Pink

2. After whom was the peony named?

- Doctor of the Olympian gods
- Daughter of Zeus
- Aphrodite's Favorite

3. What are the best months to plant peonies in the Northern Hemisphere?

- March-April
- May-June
- August-September

4. How big do peony flowers reach?

- Up to 5-10 cm
- Up to 15-25 cm
- Up to 30-45 cm

5. What shape does the peony fruit have?

- Cubic
- Spherical
- Star-shaped

6. Is it true that peony petals can be added to salads or to punch and lemonade?

- Yes
- No

7. How does the abbreviation APS stand for? It is the name of a non-profit organization of plant lovers of the genus Peony and awards them the Award of Landscape Merit.

- American Peony Society
- Australian Peony Society
- African Peony Society

8. How many flowers can bloom on one peony bush?

- Up to 100
- Up to 15
- Up to 5

9. How many varieties of peony exist today?

- About 100
- About 500
- About 6000

10. What color peony doesn't exist?

- orange
- blue
- white

Peony Quiz: Trivia Questions and Answers

Right answers

1. What is the most common color of a peony?

Pink

2. After whom was the peony named?

Doctor of the Olympian gods

3. What are the best months to plant peonies in the Northern Hemisphere?

August-September

4. How big do peony flowers reach?

Up to 15-25 cm

5. What shape does the peony fruit have?

Star-shaped

6. Is it true that peony petals can be added to salads or to punch and lemonade?

Yes

7. How does the abbreviation APS stand for? It is the name of a non-profit organization of plant lovers of the genus Peony and awards them the Award of Landscape Merit.

American Peony Society

8. How many flowers can bloom on one peony bush?

Up to 100

9. How many varieties of peony exist today?

About 6000

10. What color peony doesn't exist?

blue