

Oranges Quiz: Trivia Questions and Answers

1. Which family does orange belong to?

- Moraceae
- Rutaceae
- Sapindaceae

2. The orange is supposed to be the hybrid of ...

- Mandarin and lemon
- Tangerine and pomelo
- This is not a hybrid plant

3. Who were the first to bring oranges to Europe?

- The Dutch
- The British
- The Portuguese

4. What was orange originally called in France?

- Orange
- Pomme de Chine
- Escargot

5. What is the scientific name of an orange fruit?

- Hesperidium
- Balausta
- Berry

6. What is the scientific name of the top layer of the fruit peel?

- Zest
- Flavedo
- Albedo

7. What is zest?

- The orange seed
- The outer colored layer of the fruit peel in some citruses
- The milled citrus peels

8. Which vitamin makes the orange juice an excellent antiscorbutic agent?

- Vitamin C
- Vitamin B
- Vitamin A

9. Is the orange peel useful?

- Yes ,even more than the orange itself
- No, because it is poisoned

10. What can the orange peel be used for?

- To burst a balloon
- To remove some stains from clothes
- To scare a rat or a mouse with its smell

Oranges Quiz: Trivia Questions and Answers

Right answers

1. Which family does orange belong to?
Rutaceae
2. The orange is supposed to be the hybrid of ...
Tangerine and pomelo
3. Who were the first to bring oranges to Europe?
The Portuguese
4. What was orange originally called in France?
Pomme de Chine
5. What is the scientific name of an orange fruit?
Hesperidium
6. What is the scientific name of the top layer of the fruit peel?
Flavedo
7. What is zest?
The outer colored layer of the fruit peel in some citruses
8. Which vitamin makes the orange juice an excellent antiscorbutic agent?
Vitamin C
9. Is the orange peel useful?
Yes ,even more than the orange itself
10. What can the orange peel be used for?
To burst a balloon