

Ancient Greek Philosophy Quiz: Trivia Questions and Answers

1. When the Ancient Greek Philosophy arose?

- 10th century BC
- 8th century BC
- 6th century BC

2. "I only know that I know nothing". Who said this?

- Plato
- Socrates
- Heraclitus

3. Which one of the following was a disciple of Socrates?

- Critias
- Ion
- Anthistenes

4. In his "Republic" Plato presents what he believes to be an ideal society. In his division of classes, he mentions three. Which one of the following is NOT one of them?

- Philosophers
- Craftsmen
- Poets

5. Where was Aristotle born?

- Delphi
- Athens
- Stageira

6. What does Aristotle identify happiness as?

- Good
- Freedom
- God

7. How can "good" be achieved according to the Aristotle?

- By achieving the highest knowledge possible
- By choosing the middle term between two opposites
- By always behaving well towards the other

8. Aristotle was the teacher of:

- Pericles
- Leonidas
- Alexander the Great

9. Who is considered the last of the "pre-Socratic philosophers", ending such period with his arrival in Athens?

- Anaxagoras
- Anaximenes
- Empedocles

Ancient Greek Philosophy Quiz: Trivia Questions and Answers

Right answers

1. When the Ancient Greek Philosophy arose?
6th century BC
2. "I only know that I know nothing". Who said this?
Socrates
3. Which one of the following was a disciple of Socrates?
Anthistenes
4. In his "Republic" Plato presents what he believes to be an ideal society. In his division of classes, he mentions three. Which one of the following is NOT one of them?
Poets
5. Where was Aristotle born?
Stageira
6. What does Aristotle identify happiness as?
Good
7. How can "good" be achieved according to the Aristotle?
By choosing the middle term between two opposites
8. Aristotle was the teacher of:
Alexander the Great
9. Who is considered the last of the "pre-Socratic philosophers", ending such period with his arrival in Athens?
Anaxagoras