

Antelope Quiz: questions and answers

1. When was the English word "antelope" first used?

- 1457
- 1417
- 1420

2. Which species of antelope is native to Russia?

- Tibetan antelope
- Blackbuck
- Four-horned antelope

3. What is a group of Antelope called?

- A herd
- A pride
- A swarm

4. How many species of antelope exist?

- 90
- 91
- 82

5. How many species of antelope are listed as endangered by the IUCN?

- 30
- 25

21

6. What is an average weight of an adult Royal Antelope?

- 80 kg
- 950 kg
- 1.5 kg

7. Which biological family do antelopes belong to?

- Bovidae
- Ursidae
- Equidae

8. In which continent there is no native species of antelope?

- Europe
- Australia
- Africa

9. Why were antelopes brought to United States?

- For exotic hunting
- For animal husbandry
- For culinary

10. Which country's coat of arms displayed an antelope?

- Papua New Guinea
- Uganda
- Zambia

Antelope Quiz: questions and answers

Right answers

1. When was the English word "antelope" first used?
1417
2. Which species of antelope is native to Russia?
Tibetan antelope
3. What is a group of Antelope called?
A herd
4. How many species of antelope exist?
91
5. How many species of antelope are listed as endangered by the IUCN?
25
6. What is an average weight of an adult Royal Antelope?
1.5 kg
7. Which biological family do antelopes belong to?
Equidae
8. In which continent there is no native species of antelope?
Australia
9. Why were antelopes brought to United States?
For exotic hunting
10. Which country's coat of arms displayed an antelope?
Uganda