

Australian Cuisine Quiz: Trivia Questions and Answers

1. What is the name given to any food native to Australia and used as sustenance by the original inhabitants?

- Bush tucker
- Bush food
- Tucker bush

2. When did South Australia legalize the sale of kangaroo meat for human consumption?

- 1990
- 1980
- 1970

3. Which species of ant is consumed by Indigenous Australians?

- Honey ants
- Fire ants
- Dark rover ants

4. Where is dairy cattle mostly found in Australia?

- New South Wales
- Queensland
- Victoria

5. What is a billycan?

- A lightweight cooking pot in the form of a wooden bucket
- A lightweight cooking pot in the form of a metal bucket
- A heavyweight cooking pot in the form of a metal bucket

6. Who founded Australia's first commercial brewery in 1798?

- Andrew Boorde
- James Squire
- James Buchanan

7. Damper, a traditional Australian soda bread, was originally developed by _____

- Stockmen
- Sailors
- Soldiers

8. When is meat pie traditionally consumed by Australians?

- On New Year
- On Christmas
- On AFL Grand Final Day

9. Which of the following ingredients is not part of an Anzac biscuit?

- Oats
- Sugar
- Lemon juice

10. What is vegemite made of?

- Pork liver
- Kangaroo's meat
- Leftovers brewers

Australian Cuisine Quiz: Trivia Questions and Answers

Right answers

1. What is the name given to any food native to Australia and used as sustenance by the original inhabitants?

Bush tucker

2. When did South Australia legalize the sale of kangaroo meat for human consumption?

1980

3. Which species of ant is consumed by Indigenous Australians?

Honey ants

4. Where is dairy cattle mostly found in Australia?

Victoria

5. What is a billycan?

A lightweight cooking pot in the form of a metal bucket

6. Who founded Australia's first commercial brewery in 1798?

James Squire

7. Damper, a traditional Australian soda bread, was originally developed by _____

Stockmen

8. When is meat pie traditionally consumed by Australians?

On AFL Grand Final Day

9. Which of the following ingredients is not part of an Anzac biscuit?

Lemon juice

10. What is vegemite made of?

Leftovers brewers