

Birch Quiz: Trivia Questions and Answers

1. The Latin name for birch.

- Pínus
- Bétula
- Quércus

2. What percentage of tensile strength does birch give?

- 75%
- 50%
- 35%

3. What is the scientific name of a birch tree?

- Malus Pumila
- Mangifera Indica
- Betula

4. How long can the leaves of birch trees be?

- 10-12 Millimetres
- 3-6 Millimetres
- 8 Millimetres

5. What are birch buds used for?

- For making clothes
- For culinary
- For folk medicine

6. What is birch oil used for?

- Cooking
- Hair growth products
- Russian leather manufacturing

7. Since from how many years birch trees are being cultivated?

- 1920s
- 1870s
- 1910s

8. Which acid can be found in birch bark?

- Betulinic acid
- Sulfuric acid
- Acetic acid

9. In which culture birch symbolises renewal, growth, stability, initiation and adaptability?

- Celtic culture
- Japanese culture
- Slavic culture

Birch Quiz: Trivia Questions and Answers

Right answers

1. The Latin name for birch.

Bétula

2. What percentage of tensile strength does birch give?

75%

3. What is the scientific name of a birch tree?

Betula

4. How long can the leaves of birch trees be?

3-6 Millimetres

5. What are birch buds used for?

For folk medicine

6. What is birch oil used for?

Russian leather manufacturing

7. Since from how many years birch trees are being cultivated?

1870s

8. Which acid can be found in birch bark?

Betulinic acid

9. In which culture birch symbolises renewal, growth, stability, initiation and adaptability?

Celtic culture