

Bloody Mary Quiz: questions and answers

1. What is a Bloody Mary?

- An alcoholic cocktail
- A fresh juice
- A hot beverage

2. When was the Bloody Mary invented?

- 1920s or 1930s
- 1890s
- 1868

3. Where was it invented?

- Paris, France
- New York, USA
- Lyon, France

4. Who claimed to invent the Bloody Mary?

- Henri Agasse
- Albert Aublet
- Fernand Petiot

5. Why is it called Bloody Mary?

- Because the inventor had hemophilia
- After Queen Mary I of England

After the inventor's wife

6. When is the National Bloody Mary day?

- July 4th
- February 2nd
- January 1st

7. What are the ingredients of a cocktail?

- Vodka, tomato juice, spices and flavorings
- Beer, tomato juice and celery
- Tequila, tomato juice and salt

8. In the United States the Bloody Mary is famous as:

- A cure for hangover
- A cure for stress
- An traditional American drink

9. Which famous writer loved to drink Bloody Mary?

- Charles Bukowski
- Jack Kerouac
- Ernest Hemingway

10. How's this cocktail served?

- Neat in a tall glass
- Over ice in a tall glass
- In a teacup

Bloody Mary Quiz: questions and answers

Right answers

1. What is a Bloody Mary?
An alcoholic cocktail
2. When was the Bloody Mary invented?
1920s or 1930s
3. Where was it invented?
Paris, France
4. Who claimed to invent the Bloody Mary?
Fernand Petiot
5. Why is it called Bloody Mary?
After Queen Mary I of England
6. When is the National Bloody Mary day?
January 1st
7. What are the ingredients of a cocktail?
Vodka, tomato juice, spices and flavorings
8. In the United States the Bloody Mary is famous as:
A cure for hangover
9. Which famous writer loved to drink Bloody Mary?
Ernest Hemingway
10. How's this cocktail served?
Over ice in a tall glass