

Bones Quiz: questions and answers

1. What is the most commonly broken bone in the human body?

- The sternum
- The mandible
- The clavicle

2. How many bones are human babies born with?

- 300
- 185
- 150

3. Yellow bone marrow mostly consists of what type of cells?

- Skin Cells
- Nerve Cells
- Fat Cells

4. What tough tissue grows over a broken bone during the healing process

- Trabecular Bone
- Collagen
- Concellous Bone

5. When is the patella located?

- A thigh
- A palm

A knee

6. Bones that make up your fingers are called:

- Carpals
- Metacarpals
- Phalanges

7. What is inside the hollow cavity of the bone shaft?

- Periosteum
- Marrow
- Compact bone

8. What are joint surfaces called?

- Condyle
- Articular surfaces
- Heads

9. What is the process on the femur called?

- Tuberosity
- Trochanter
- Spine

10. How many bones form the cranium?

- 9
- 12
- 8

Bones Quiz: questions and answers

Right answers

1. What is the most commonly broken bone in the human body?
The clavicle
2. How many bones are human babies born with?
300
3. Yellow bone marrow mostly consists of what type of cells?
Fat Cells
4. What tough tissue grows over a broken bone during the healing process
Collagen
5. When is the patella located?
A knee
6. Bones that make up your fingers are called:
Metacarpals
7. What is inside the hollow cavity of the bone shaft?
Compact bone
8. What are joint surfaces called?
Articular surfaces
9. What is the process on the femur called?
Trochanter
10. How many bones form the cranium?
8