

Cherries Quiz: questions and answers

1. Which genus does cherry fruit belong to?

- Prunus
- Pyrus
- Ribes

2. The word Cherry is derived from which French word?

- Cerasus
- Cerasum
- Cherise

3. Cherries were first introduced in England by the orders of:

- Henry V
- Henry VII
- Henry VIII

4. Which variety of cherry is one of the national symbols for China?

- Prunus mume
- Prunus ssiori
- Prunus avium

5. Sweet cherries which are raw have about 82%:

- Water
- Sugar

Protein

6. Which US state produces the largest number of sweet cherries?

- Alabama
- Ohio
- Washington

7. What is Prunus cerasus also known as?

- Bitter cherry
- Sour cherry
- Sweet cherry

8. What is the Black Cherry Capital of the World?

- Yoe, Pennsylvania
- York, Pennsylvania
- Kane, Pennsylvania

9. In Australia, cherries are grown in all the states except for the:

- Western territory
- Northern territory
- Southern territory

Cherries Quiz: questions and answers

Right answers

1. Which genus does cherry fruit belong to?
Prunus
2. The word Cherry is derived from which French word?
Cherise
3. Cherries were first introduced in England by the orders of:
Henry VIII
4. Which variety of cherry is one of the national symbols for China?
Prunus mume
5. Sweet cherries which are raw have about 82%:
Water
6. Which US state produces the largest number of sweet cherries?
Washington
7. What is Prunus cerasus also known as?
Sour cherry
8. What is the Black Cherry Capital of the World?
Kane, Pennsylvania
9. In Australia, cherries are grown in all the states except for the:
Northern territory