

Classical Music Quiz: Trivia Questions and Answers

1. What is known as the "Common practice" period?

- 1550-1900
- 1700-1900
- 1600-1900

2. What is known as the "Early Music" period?

- 500-1770s
- 600-1770s
- 700-1770s

3. Which century includes the "Experimental" era?

- 1960-present
- 1950-present
- 1970-present

4. Since when is the "Staff Notation" in use?

- 11th century
- 12th century
- 13th century

5. The term "Classical music" didn't appear until?

- 1830
- 1831
- 1829

6. When did the piano take over from the fortepiano?

- The Experimental Era
- The Early Music Era
- The Romantic era

7. Orchestras and bands have tuned to a fixed frequency of?

- 450Hz
- 460Hz
- 440Hz

8. Which college provides a degree in "commercial music"?

- BerkLee College Of Music
- MIT
- Duke

9. Which university has a Jazz program?

- Harvard University
- Columbia University
- McGill University

10. Symphonies written in the Classical period were divided into?

- 6 movements
- 5 movements
- 4 movements

Classical Music Quiz: Trivia Questions and Answers

Right answers

1. What is known as the "Common practice" period?
1550-1900
2. What is known as the "Early Music" period?
500-1770s
3. Which century includes the "Experimental" era?
1950-present
4. Since when is the "Staff Notation" in use?
11th century
5. The term "Classical music" didn't appear until?
1829
6. When did the piano take over from the fortepiano?
The Romantic era
7. Orchestras and bands have tuned to a fixed frequency of?
440Hz
8. Which college provides a degree in "commercial music"?
BerkLee College Of Music
9. Which university has a Jazz program?
McGill University
10. Symphonies written in the Classical period were divided into?
4 movements