

Concorde Quiz: questions and answers

1. When was the first flight of the Concorde?

- 1975
- 1969
- 1993

2. When was the Concorde project started?

- 1950s
- 1930s
- 1970s

3. What was the average time of Concorde's transatlantic flights?

- 3.5 hours
- 1.5 hours
- 2.5 hours

4. When was the Concorde 001 equipped with observation instruments a part of Solar Eclipse mission?

- 1996
- 1981
- 1973

5. What was applied to the Concorde aircraft during banks and turns due to its high speeds?

- Supersonic speed
- Air compression

Large forces

6. How many people were lost to the 2002 fatal accident involving Concorde Air France Flight 4590 crash in Gonesse?

113 people

100 people

115 people

7. When did Air France and British Airways retire Concorde?

2004

2003

2005

8. What was the hottest part of Concorde, besides its engines?

The nose

The chassis

Wings

9. What was the time of the fastest transatlantic supersonic flight?

2 hours, 52 minutes, 59 seconds

3 hours, 1 minutes, 33 seconds

2 hours, 27 minutes, 15 seconds

Concorde Quiz: questions and answers

Right answers

1. When was the first flight of the Concorde?
1969
2. When was the Concorde project started?
1950s
3. What was the average time of Concorde's transatlantic flights?
3.5 hours
4. When was the Concorde 001 equipped with observation instruments a part of Solar Eclipse mission?
1973
5. What was applied to the Concorde aircraft during banks and turns due to its high speeds?
Large forces
6. How many people were lost to the 2002 fatal accident involving Concorde Air France Flight 4590 crash in Gonesse?
113 people
7. When did Air France and British Airways retire Concorde?
2003
8. What was the hottest part of Concorde, besides its engines?
The nose
9. What was the time of the fastest transatlantic supersonic flight?
2 hours, 52 minutes, 59 seconds