

Coriander Quiz: questions and answers

1. What is the other name of coriander?

- Clarie
- Cilantro
- Cleto

2. What is coriander?

- A plant
- A seed
- A flower

3. What is the binomial name of coriander?

- Cilontrum Coriand
- Coriandrum sativum
- Bicornantum clint

4. What is the average height of the coriander plant?

- 20 cm
- 59 cm
- 73 cm

5. Which ancient civilization has started to cultivate the coriander according to Zohary and Hopf?

- Ancient Egyptians
- Ancient Mongolians

Ancient Russians

6. Which part of the coriander plant is usually used in different spice mixes?

- Roots
- Leaves
- Seeds

7. Which German and South African food is often cooked with coriander?

- Tea
- Sweets
- Sausages

8. What is coriander often added to in Russia and Central Europe?

- Rye bread
- Pancakes
- Dumplings

9. In which cuisine coriander roots are mostly used?

- American cuisine
- French cuisine
- Thai cuisine

10. What is the amount of protein that raw coriander leaves contain?

- 7%
- 5%
- 2%

Coriander Quiz: questions and answers

Right answers

1. What is the other name of coriander?

Cilantro

2. What is coriander?

A plant

3. What is the binomial name of coriander?

Coriandrum sativum

4. What is the average height of the coriander plant?

20 cm

5. Which ancient civilization has started to cultivate the coriander according to Zohary and Hopf?

Ancient Egyptians

6. Which part of the coriander plant is usually used in different spice mixes?

Seeds

7. Which German and South African food is often cooked with coriander?

Sausages

8. What is coriander often added to in Russia and Central Europe?

Rye bread

9. In which cuisine coriander roots are mostly used?

Thai cuisine

10. What is the amount of protein that raw coriander leaves contain?

2%