

Cue Sports Quiz: questions and answers

1. Which of the following is not considered a cue sport?

- Football
- Pool
- Carom billiards

2. How many subdivisions of games within cue sports exist?

- Five
- Three
- Seven

3. When did billiards become an official Olympic sport?

- 2000
- 1904
- It is not an olympic sport

4. Who had the first known indoor billiard table?

- Louis XI of France
- Charles VIII of France
- Charlotte of Savoy

5. What is the diameter of the ball used in Russian pyramid?

- 71 mm
- 68 mm

65 mm

6. What was the dominant material used for making billiards balls from 1627 until the early-to-mid 20th century?

- Celluloid
- Ivory
- Wood

7. What are billiard tables covered with?

- Baize
- Wood
- Ivory

8. What is the name given to a frame used to organize billiard balls at the beginning of a game?

- Frame
- Rack
- Triangle

9. Why is chalk applied to the tip of the cue stick?

- To increase the tip's friction coefficient
- To decrease the tip's friction coefficient
- To clean the tip

10. Who won the World Straight Pool Championship in 2008?

- Efren Reyes
- Niels Feijen
- Lee Van Corteza

Cue Sports Quiz: questions and answers

Right answers

1. Which of the following is not considered a cue sport?

Football

2. How many subdivisions of games within cue sports exist?

Three

3. When did billiards become an official Olympic sport?

It is not an olympic sport

4. Who had the first known indoor billiard table?

Louis XI of France

5. What is the diameter of the ball used in Russian pyramid?

68 mm

6. What was the dominant material used for making billiards balls from 1627 until the early-to-mid 20th century?

Ivory

7. What are billiard tables covered with?

Baize

8. What is the name given to a frame used to organize billiard balls at the beginning of a game?

Rack

9. Why is chalk applied to the tip of the cue stick?

To increase the tip's friction coefficient

10. Who won the World Straight Pool Championship in 2008?

Niels Feijen