

Quiz: Do you Know Islands of our Planet?

1. Socotra is an isolated island in the Indian Ocean. What country does it belong to?

- Oman.
- Yemen
- Somalia

2. What is the North Sentinel Island known for?

- This island is rich in iron and aluminum.
- It is home to aborigines who reject all contact with civilization.
- It has the bizarre shape of a seahorse.

3. Which uninhabited island was chosen by scientists to simulate living conditions on Mars?

- Devon
- New Island
- Ponafidina

4. In the northern part of Croatia there is an island with the unusual name of Krk. In what sea is it located?

- Adriatic Sea
- Barents Sea
- Mediterranean

5. On which island is the famous Japanese volcano Fujiyama located?

- Kyushu
- Hashima
- Honshu

6. Between these islands lies the U.S.-Russian state border and the date change line. What are they called?

- Diomide Islands
- Virgin Islands
- Kuril Islands

7. Which of the islands does not include the Malay Archipelago?

- Philippines
- Moluccas
- Chiloé

8. Which city is the capital of the Cayman Islands?

- Georgetown
- Jakarta
- Taipei

9. Madagascar is the fourth largest island in the world. It also produces more than half of the world's volume of one known spice. What is this spice?

- Cloves.
- Vanilla
- Cinnamon.

10. Which island is the most populous in the world?

- Java
- Great Britain
- Taiwan

11. Which archipelago includes Bathurst Island?

- Canadian Arctic Archipelago
- Palmer Archipelago
- Moonsouth Archipelago

12. Which island does not belong to any country?

- Saipel
- Trinidad
- Saaremaa

13. On which islands is the Livingston's flying fox endemic?

- New Britain
- Comoros
- Tasmania

14. Which of the following islands is considered the most sparsely populated territory in the world?

- Magdalen Islands
- The Pitcairn Islands
- Lesser Antilles

15. Who discovered Beaufort Island?

- James Ross.
- Francis Beaufort
- Thaddeus Bellingshausen

Quiz: Do you Know Islands of our Planet?

Right answers

1. Socotra is an isolated island in the Indian Ocean. What country does it belong to?

Yemen

2. What is the North Sentinel Island known for?

It is home to aborigines who reject all contact with civilization.

3. Which uninhabited island was chosen by scientists to simulate living conditions on Mars?

Devon

4. In the northern part of Croatia there is an island with the unusual name of Krk. In what sea is it located?

Adriatic Sea

5. On which island is the famous Japanese volcano Fujiyama located?

Honshu

6. Between these islands lies the U.S.-Russian state border and the date change line. What are they called?

Diomide Islands

7. Which of the islands does not include the Malay Archipelago?

Chiloé

8. Which city is the capital of the Cayman Islands?

Georgetown

9. Madagascar is the fourth largest island in the world. It also produces more than half of the world's volume of one known spice. What is this spice?

Vanilla

10. Which island is the most populous in the world?

Java

11. Which archipelago includes Bathurst Island?

Canadian Arctic Archipelago

12. Which island does not belong to any country?

Saipel

13. On which islands is the Livingston's flying fox endemic?

Comoros

14. Which of the following islands is considered the most sparsely populated territory in the world?

The Pitcairn Islands

15. Who discovered Beaufort Island?

James Ross.