

Euclid Quiz: Trivia Questions and Answers

1. Who was Euclid?

- A Greek god
- A Greek philosopher
- A Greek mathematician

2. What is the name of Euclid's most famous work?

- "Mathematics"
- "Pieces"
- "Elements"

3. How many works of Euclid have survived to the present day?

- 5
- 2
- 7

4. Which work of Euclid refers to the mathematical theory of mirrors?

- "Data"
- "Catoptrics"
- "Phaenomena"

5. Which work of Euclid refers to the division of geometrical figures into two or more equal parts or into parts in given ratios?

- "Data"
- "On Division of Figures"
- "Catoptrics"

6. What was Euclid known as?

- As the king of geometry
- As the father of the numbers
- As the father of geometry

7. In which science field is "Elements" used?

- Mathematics
- Physics
- Chemistry

8. When did Euclid die?

- 271 BC
- 269 BC
- 270 BC

9. During the reign of which ruler did Euclid live and work?

- Ptolemy I
- Pericles
- Julius Caesar

10. Which field did Euclid works cover besides mathematics?

- Music
- Astronomy
- Politics

Euclid Quiz: Trivia Questions and Answers

Right answers

1. Who was Euclid?
A Greek mathematician
2. What is the name of Euclid's most famous work?
"Elements"
3. How many works of Euclid have survived to the present day?
5
4. Which work of Euclid refers to the mathematical theory of mirrors?
"Catoptrics"
5. Which work of Euclid refers to the division of geometrical figures into two or more equal parts or into parts in given ratios?
"On Division of Figures"
6. What was Euclid known as?
As the father of geometry
7. In which science field is "Elements" used?
Mathematics
8. When did Euclid die?
270 BC
9. During the reign of which ruler did Euclid live and work?
Ptolemy I
10. Which field did Euclid works cover besides mathematics?
Music