

Fungi Quiz: questions and answers

1. The English word "fungus" was adopted from:

- A Greek word
- A Latin word
- A German word

2. Who was the first to publish the descriptions of fungi?

- Anton de Bary
- Pier Antonio Micheli
- Miles Joseph Berkeley

3. In which year were the first descriptions of fungi published?

- 1729
- 1727
- 1726

4. What is the scientific name of fungus?

- Opisthokonta
- Holomycota
- Fungi

5. Who has established the first classification of fungi?

- Christian Hendrik Persoon
- Pier Andrea Saccardo

Anton de Bary

6. How many species of fungi have been described by taxonomists?

- Around 120,000 species
- Around 110,000 species
- Around 130,000 species

7. Allergies are:

- Fungal food
- Fungal diseases
- Species of fungi

8. Who was the founder of modern mycology?

- Miles Joseph Berkeley
- Heinrich Anton de Bary
- Joseph Corda

9. When was microscope developed?

- 18th century
- 17th century
- 16th century

Fungi Quiz: questions and answers

Right answers

1. The English word "fungus" was adopted from:
A Latin word
2. Who was the first to publish the descriptions of fungi?
Pier Antonio Micheli
3. In which year were the first descriptions of fungi published?
1729
4. What is the scientific name of fungus?
Fungi
5. Who has established the first classification of fungi?
Christian Hendrik Persoon
6. How many species of fungi have been described by taxonomists?
Around 120,000 species
7. Allergies are:
Fungal diseases
8. Who was the founder of modern mycology?
Heinrich Anton de Bary
9. When was microscope developed?
17th century