

Grog Quiz: questions and answers

1. What is Grog?

- A Scandinavian festival
- A castle
- A drink

2. What is Grog usually made of?

- Water, sugar and brandy
- Water, sugar and rum
- Gin, sugar and tea

3. How is grog usually served?

- Chilled
- Ice cold
- Hot

4. When was the original recipe of grog invented?

- 1920s
- 1880s
- 1750s

5. Who is claimed to be the inventor of grog?

- Edward Vernon
- Ernest Hemingway

Oscar Wilde

6. Where was the first grog recipe invented?

- Greece
- The United Kingdom
- Sweden

7. How is grog also known in Ireland?

- Groggy
- Juice
- Whisky

8. Why did sailors originally add rum to water?

- To make it taste better
- To prolong the process of drinking
- To prevent water from become slimy

9. What is the original ratio of water-to-rum?

- 4:1
- 2:1
- 1:1

10. How many times a day sailors had to drink grog according to the official regulations of the Royal Navy?

- Once before going to sleep
- Twice, in the morning and in the evening
- As much as they wanted

Grog Quiz: questions and answers

Right answers

1. What is Grog?
A drink
2. What is Grog usually made of?
Water, sugar and rum
3. How is grog usually served?
Hot
4. When was the original recipe of grog invented?
1750s
5. Who is claimed to be the inventor of grog?
Edward Vernon
6. Where was the first grog recipe invented?
The United Kingdom
7. How is grog also known in Ireland?
Groggy
8. Why did sailors originally add rum to water?
To prevent water from become slimy
9. What is the original ratio of water-to-rum?
4:1
10. How many times a day sailors had to drink grog according to the official regulations of the Royal Navy?
Twice, in the morning and in the evening