

Invertebrate Quiz: questions and answers

1. What is the main characteristic of invertebrates?

- A dorsal hollow nerve cord
- A vertebral column
- An extremely large size

2. Which of these groups is invertebrate?

- Reptiles
- Amphibians
- Insects

3. Which kingdom do invertebrates belong to?

- Archaeobacteria
- Animalia
- Chromista

4. Who is the founder invertebrate zoology?

- Henri Milne-Edwards
- Émile Oustalet
- Jean-Baptiste Lamarck

5. How are invertebrates born?

- By pollination
- By eggs

By birth

6. What percentage of animals are invertebrates?

97%

85%

23%

7. How big are invertebrates?

Human sized

Extremely large

Small

8. What is the most studied invertebrate?

The crab

Sponges

The fruit fly

9. What are macroinvertebrates?

Freshwater invertebrates

Animals that begin to develop spine

Large invertebrates

Invertebrate Quiz: questions and answers

Right answers

1. What is the main characteristic of invertebrates?

A vertebral column

2. Which of these groups is invertebrate?

Insects

3. Which kingdom do invertebrates belong to?

Animalia

4. Who is the founder invertebrate zoology?

Jean-Baptiste Lamarck

5. How are invertebrates born?

By eggs

6. What percentage of animals are invertebrates?

97%

7. How big are invertebrates?

Small

8. What is the most studied invertebrate?

The fruit fly

9. What are macroinvertebrates?

Freshwater invertebrates