

Jewish Cuisine Quiz: questions and answers

1. What is considered as "Jewish penicillin"?

- Chicken Soup
- Carrot Soup
- Matzo-ball soup

2. What is prohibited according to the laws of kashrut?

- To prepare dishes that mixes meat or poultry with dairy products
- To eat pork and beef
- To drink water during eating

3. What is fish yuck?

- Soup made of fish tails
- Fish sticks with special sauce
- Jelly on gefilte fish

4. When a food item has neither dairy nor meat products, what is it called?

- Cholent
- Kishke
- Pareve

5. What does the schmaltz refer to?

- Roasted Ham
- Grilled Pork

Rendered Poultry Skin

6. What is a traditional Ashkenazi Jewish sweet stew typically made from carrots and dried fruits?

Tizamama

Tzimmes

Tizmo

7. Where did Jewish Food-Bagels originate from?

Americas

India

Eastern Europe

8. What is the name of a Ukranian beet soup popular in Jewish cuisine?

Hummus

Tofu

Borshtsh

9. What are Jewish Dietary Laws known as?

Shona

Kashrut

Shabbat

10. What do the Jews of Baghdad and Persia like to eat the most?

Stews

Rice, flavored with herbs

Pork

Jewish Cuisine Quiz: questions and answers

Right answers

1. What is considered as "Jewish penicillin"?

Chicken Soup

2. What is prohibited according to the laws of kashrut?

To prepare dishes that mixes meat or poultry with dairy products

3. What is fish yuck?

Jelly on gefilte fish

4. When a food item has neither dairy nor meat products, what is it called?

Pareve

5. What does the schmaltz refer to?

Rendered Poultry Skin

6. What is a traditional Ashkenazi Jewish sweet stew typically made from carrots and dried fruits?

Tzimmes

7. Where did Jewish Food-Bagels originate from?

Eastern Europe

8. What is the name of a Ukrainian beet soup popular in Jewish cuisine?

Borshtsh

9. What are Jewish Dietary Laws known as?

Kashrut

10. What do the Jews of Baghdad and Persia like to eat the most?

Rice, flavored with herbs