

Ketchup Quiz: questions and answers

1. What is Ketchup typically made of?

- Melons
- Tomatoes
- Apples

2. What is the traditional colour of ketchup?

- White
- Green
- Red

3. Which company is the ketchup market leader in the USA and UK?

- Hunt
- Del Monte
- Heinz

4. When did the word "ketchup" enter the English language?

- 1430
- 1690
- 1750

5. What was the primary ingredient in the original preparations of ketchup in the UK?

- Carrots
- Mushrooms

Potatoes

6. Who is credited as the first American to have sold tomato ketchup in a bottle?

- James Mease
- Jonas Yerkes
- Mary Randolph

7. What is the name given to ketchup in Wales?

- Red sauce
- Catsup
- Tomato sauce

8. Why do ketchup manufacturing companies add xanthan gum to their products?

- To add sweetness
- To keep water from separating out of ketchup
- To give its distinctive red color

9. Which of the following ingredients is not included in Heinz tomato ketchup's recipe?

- Corn Syrup
- Vinegar
- Honey

10. How many kcal does 100g of ketchup have according to the USDA?

- 104 kcal
- 36 kcal
- 100 kcal

Ketchup Quiz: questions and answers

Right answers

1. What is Ketchup typically made of?

Tomatoes

2. What is the traditional colour of ketchup?

Red

3. Which company is the ketchup market leader in the USA and UK?

Heinz

4. When did the word "ketchup" enter the English language?

1690

5. What was the primary ingredient in the original preparations of ketchup in the UK?

Mushrooms

6. Who is credited as the first American to have sold tomato ketchup in a bottle?

Jonas Yerkes

7. What is the name given to ketchup in Wales?

Red sauce

8. Why do ketchup manufacturing companies add xanthan gum to their products?

To keep water from separating out of ketchup

9. Which of the following ingredients is not included in Heinz tomato ketchup's recipe?

Honey

10. How many kcal does 100g of ketchup have according to the USDA?

100 kcal