

Margaret Mitchel Quiz: questions and answers

1. What is the Mitchell's most notable work?

- "To Kill a Mockingbird"
- "Gone with the wind"
- "Jane Eyre"

2. Where was Margaret Mitchell born?

- England
- France
- United States

3. When was Margaret Mitchell born?

- 1900
- 1949
- 1978

4. How many children were in Mitchell's family?

- 1
- 3
- 2

5. What was Mitchell's favorite books as an avid reader?

- "The Long Roll"
- Tom Swift series

"Rover Boys"

6. Who was Mitchell's source for information?

- Her brother
- Her best friend
- Her grandmother

7. What was the major theme in Mitchell's poems?

- Mystery
- Religion
- History

8. What was Mitchell's profession during World War II?

- American Red Cross volunteer
- Miner
- Babysitter

9. When was Mitchell awarded the Pulitzer Prize for Fiction?

- 1917
- 1937
- 1947

10. What was the pseudonym of Margaret Mitchell?

- Susanna Mitchell
- Anna Mitchell
- Peggy Mitchell

Margaret Mitchel Quiz: questions and answers

Right answers

1. What is the Mitchell's most notable work?
"Gone with the wind"
2. Where was Margaret Mitchell born?
United States
3. When was Margaret Mitchell born?
1900
4. How many children were in Mitchell's family?
3
5. What was Mitchell's favorite books as an avid reader?
Tom Swift series
6. Who was Mitchell's source for information?
Her grandmother
7. What was the major theme in Mitchell's poems?
History
8. What was Mitchell's profession during World War II?
American Red Cross volunteer
9. When was Mitchell awarded the Pulitzer Prize for Fiction?
1937
10. What was the pseudonym of Margaret Mitchell?
Peggy Mitchell