

Mold Quiz: questions and answers

1. What is mold?

- A fungus
- A bacteria
- A virus

2. The mold Geotrichum candidum is used for which food item production?

- Cheese
- Corn
- Breads

3. What are the multicellular filaments of the mold called?

- Hyphae
- Spores
- Wings

4. Slime molds have nutrition by:

- Phagocytosis
- Absorptive heterotrophosis
- Flagellated cells

5. How do molds reproduce?

- Dividing
- Producing Eggs

Producing Spores

6. Which mold produces mycotoxins?

- Green mold
- Black mold
- Yellow mold

7. Penicillium mold produces spores called:

- Sporangium
- Canidia
- Rhizoids

8. If someone is positive to mold allergy test, it develops what at the test location?

- A blister
- A raised bump
- A sebum filled bump

9. What is the category of Black Mold?

- Fusarium
- Rhizopus oligosporus
- Stachybotrys chartarum

10. What does mold do to a natural material?

- Makes it dead
- Biodegrades it
- Eats it

Mold Quiz: questions and answers

Right answers

1. What is mold?
A fungus
2. The mold Geotrichum candidum is used for which food item production?
Cheese
3. What are the multicellular filaments of the mold called?
Hyphae
4. Slime molds have nutrition by:
Phagocytosis
5. How do molds reproduce?
Producing Spores
6. Which mold produces mycotoxins?
Black mold
7. Penicillium mold produces spores called:
Canidia
8. If someone is positive to mold allergy test, it develops what at the test location?
A raised bump
9. What is the category of Black Mold?
Stachybotrys chartarum
10. What does mold do to a natural material?
Biodegrades it