

Musket Quiz: questions and answers

1. When did the first recorded usage of the term "musket" appear in Europe?

- 1499
- 1599
- 1459

2. Which type of soldiers were the first to give up armor entirely?

- Marines
- Arquebusiers
- Musketeers

3. Flintlock muskets were the mainstay of European armies between:

- 1460 and 1640
- 1560 and 1740
- 1660 and 1840

4. How long were military flintlocks without the bayonet attached?

- 150 -180 centimeters
- 250 -280 centimeters
- 120 -150 centimeters

5. What is the benefit of barrel rifling?

- It serves to stabilize the projectile improving its accuracy
- It helps to control recoil

It serves to increase the fire rate

6. Who introduced arquebuses to Japan?

- English merchantmen
- Portuguese merchantmen
- American merchantmen

7. What is Casimir Lefauchaux credited with?

- The invention of barrel rifling
- The invention of the AK-47
- The invention of one of the first efficient self-contained cartridge system

8. What was the most widely used U.S Army weapon during the Civil War?

- M14
- AK-47
- Springfield Model 1861

9. What was the first projectile which was small enough to be easily put down the barrel of a rifled long gun?

- The Minié ball
- The 5.56 x 45 mm NATO
- The .2.23 Remington

10. Who designed the Volition Repeating Rifle?

- Horace Smith
- Daniel B. Wesson
- Walter Hunt

Musket Quiz: questions and answers

Right answers

1. When did the first recorded usage of the term "musket" appear in Europe?
1499
2. Which type of soldiers were the first to give up armor entirely?
Musketeers
3. Flintlock muskets were the mainstay of European armies between:
1660 and 1840
4. How long were military flintlocks without the bayonet attached?
150 -180 centimeters
5. What is the benefit of barrel rifling?
It serves to stabilize the projectile improving its accuracy
6. Who introduced arquebuses to Japan?
Portuguese merchantmen
7. What is Casimir Lefauchaux credited with?
The invention of one of the first efficient self-contained cartridge system
8. What was the most widely used U.S Army weapon during the Civil War?
Springfield Model 1861
9. What was the first projectile which was small enough to be easily put down the barrel of a rifled long gun?
The Minié ball
10. Who designed the Volition Repeating Rifle?
Walter Hunt