

Nose Quiz: questions and answers

1. What does hair do inside the nostrils?

- Filter incoming air
- Make the nose look better
- It has no function

2. The nose of the birds is similar to the nose of:

- Mammals
- Crustaceans
- Reptiles

3. Which body system is responsible for breathing?

- Respiratoy system
- Muscular system
- Circulatory system

4. Which animal's nose has no connection with the mouth?

- Fish
- Dog
- Bird

5. How does mucus help inside the nose?

- Help the body to maintain temperature
- As a filter against airborne illness

Both are true

6. What are the most primitive living vertebrates that only have one nostril and an olfactory pouch?

- Birds
- Lampreys and hagfish
- Elephants

7. What does the shape of a human nose depend on?

- Ethnic background
- Month of birth
- Position of the stars

8. When does a human nose stop growing?

- At the age of 17
- At the age of 30
- It grows during the lifetime

9. Female noses are usually:

- Shorter than male noses
- Longer than male noses

10. What is the very strong sense of smell called?

- Anosmia
- Hyperosmia
- Dysosmia

Nose Quiz: questions and answers

Right answers

1. What does hair do inside the nostrils?

Filter incoming air

2. The nose of the birds is similar to the nose of:

Reptiles

3. Which body system is responsible for breathing?

Respiratory system

4. Which animal's nose has no connection with the mouth?

Fish

5. How does mucus help inside the nose?

Both are true

6. What are the most primitive living vertebrates that only have one nostril and an olfactory pouch?

Lampreys and hagfish

7. What does the shape of a human nose depend on?

Ethnic background

8. When does a human nose stop growing?

At the age of 17

9. Female noses are usually:

Shorter than male noses

10. What is the very strong sense of smell called?

Hyperosmia