

German Cities Quiz: questions and answers

1. Which city's population is less than one million people?

- Cologne
- Hamburg
- Stuttgart

2. Which federal state does the city of Frankfurt am Main belong to?

- North Rhine-Westphalia
- Bavaria
- Hessen

3. When were Villingen and Schwenningen on Neckar brought together due to special reform?

- In 1972
- In 1975
- In 1969

4. Which German city is one of the twenty world's alpha-cities?

- Munich
- Frankfurt on the Main
- Berlin

5. Where was the first German permanent Opera House founded?

- In Cologne
- In Berlin

In Hamburg

6. Which of these industries is not connected with Berlin?

- Chemical industry
- Radio-electronic industry
- Transport engineering

7. Which city hosts the world-famous Oktoberfest festival of beer and German cuisine?

- Hamburg
- Berlin
- Munich

8. How many football teams are there in Munich?

- Three
- Two
- One

9. What is the most famous architectural monument in Cologne?

- The St. Mary
- The St. Andrew
- The Cologne Cathedral

10. What is the most important festival which is annually held in Frankfurt am Main?

- The Frankfurt Book Fair
- The Frankfurt Motor Show (an exhibition of manufacturers in the automobile industry)
- The Museums Riverbank Festival (tourism)

German Cities Quiz: questions and answers

Right answers

1. Which city's population is less than one million people?
Stuttgart
2. Which federal state does the city of Frankfurt am Main belong to?
Hessen
3. When were Villingen and Schwenningen on Neckar brought together due to special reform?
In 1972
4. Which German city is one of the twenty world's alpha-cities?
Frankfurt on the Main
5. Where was the first German permanent Opera House founded?
In Hamburg
6. Which of these industries is not connected with Berlin?
Chemical industry
7. Which city hosts the world-famous Oktoberfest festival of beer and German cuisine?
Munich
8. How many football teams are there in Munich?
Two
9. What is the most famous architectural monument in Cologne?
The Cologne Cathedral
10. What is the most important festival which is annually held in Frankfurt am Main?
The Museums Riverbank Festival (tourism)