

Owls Quiz: questions and answers

1. What time at night are most of the owls typically most active?

- Midnight
- Dawn and Dusk
- Dawn and Midnight

2. Which category of owls have the highest pitch?

- Transgender Owls
- Female Owls
- Male Owls

3. What is the owl's body dominantly covered in?

- Feathers
- Loose Skin
- Pores

4. The peculiar feature of an owl's eye as compared to humans is?

- Owls have red eyes
- Owls can see only with 1 eye
- The eyeballs are fixed

5. What usually happens when an owl's mate dies?

- It finds another mate very quickly
- Owls do not remember their mates

It becomes depressed and sometimes dies

6. Eurasian pygmy owl native to Europe is:

- Not nocturnal
- Very big
- Very weak

7. Which group of owls does Hedwig from Harry Potter belong?

- Zebra Owl
- Snowy Owl
- Great Horned Owl

8. What is Strix Aluco owl native to Europe and Asia known as?

- Good Owl
- Tawny Owl
- Striped Owl

9. What do owl symbolize?

- Wisdom
- Sacrifice
- Foolishness

10. Where do owls keep their eggs generally?

- On tree leaves
- On tree branches
- In holes in trees

Owls Quiz: questions and answers

Right answers

1. What time at night are most of the owls typically most active?

Dawn and Dusk

2. Which category of owls have the highest pitch?

Female Owls

3. What is the owl's body dominantly covered in?

Feathers

4. The peculiar feature of an owl's eye as compared to humans is?

The eyeballs are fixed

5. What usually happens when an owl's mate dies?

It becomes depressed and sometimes dies

6. Eurasian pygmy owl native to Europe is:

Not nocturnal

7. Which group of owls does Hedwig from Harry Potter belong?

Snowy Owl

8. What is Strix Aluco owl native to Europe and Asia known as?

Tawny Owl

9. What do owl symbolize?

Wisdom

10. Where do owls keep their eggs generally?

In holes in trees