

Oyster Quiz: questions and answers

1. What is an oyster?

- An insect
- An arachnid
- A mollusc

2. What is the oyster species with the largest pearl-bearing?

- Magallana
- Pinctada maxima
- Crassostrea

3. Which family do True oysters belong to?

- Spondylus
- Ostreidae
- Pteriidae

4. How long does it take for oysters to reach their maturity?

- Two years
- Six months
- One year

5. Which is the most widely grown bivalve around the world?

- The Sydney rock oyster
- The Olympia oyster

The Pacific oyster

6. In which year was the eastern oyster introduced into the waters of California?

- 1929
- 1935
- 1875

7. What elements does the oyster contain?

- Calcium
- Zinc
- Both are true

8. What is a group of oyster called?

- Oyster group
- Oyster reef
- Oyster family

9. How can oysters be eaten?

- Smoked
- Boiled
- Both are correct

10. What is the process of opening the oyster called?

- Oyster-open
- Oyster-shucking
- Killing oyster

Oyster Quiz: questions and answers

Right answers

1. What is an oyster?

A mollusc

2. What is the oyster species with the largest pearl-bearing?

Pinctada maxima

3. Which family do True oysters belong to?

Ostreidae

4. How long does it take for oysters to reach their maturity?

One year

5. Which is the most widely grown bivalve around the world?

The Pacific oyster

6. In which year was the eastern oyster introduced into the waters of California?

1875

7. What elements does the oyster contain?

Both are true

8. What is a group of oyster called?

Oyster reef

9. How can oysters be eaten?

Both are correct

10. What is the process of opening the oyster called?

Oyster-shucking