

Paella Quiz: questions and answers

1. What does the old French word "panelle" mean?

- A bottom
- A pan
- A rice

2. Where is paella originated from?

- England
- Spain
- France

3. Who holds the world largest paella record?

- Juan Galbis
- Gordan Ramsey
- Jamie Oliver

4. Which oil is used for making paella?

- Olive oil
- Vegetable oil
- Coconut oil

5. What is the main ingredient in paella?

- Short grain rice
- Long grain rice

Brown rice

6. How many different types of paella are known?

2

4

3

7. Which type of paella does NOT exist?

Valencian

Soy

Seafood

8. When did Valencians eat valencian paella?

Sunday

Special occasions

Lunch

9. When did valencian paella become popular?

1840

1841

1843

10. When did seafood paella become popular?

20th Century

21st Century

19th Century

Paella Quiz: questions and answers

Right answers

1. What does the old French word "panelle" mean?
A pan
2. Where is paella originated from?
Spain
3. Who holds the world largest paella record?
Juan Galbis
4. Which oil is used for making paella?
Olive oil
5. What is the main ingredient in paella?
Short grain rice
6. How many different types of paella are known?
4
7. Which type of paella does NOT exist?
Soy
8. When did Valencians eat valencian paella?
Special occasions
9. When did valencian paella become popular?
1840
10. When did seafood paella become popular?
20th Century