

Peaches Quiz: questions and answers

 Which family do peaches belong to? Rosaceae Rosids Rosales
2. Which country is the second largest producer of peaches after China?
O India
O Greece
O Spain
3. Peach fruit is native to which country?Northwest JapanNorthwest China
O Southwest China
4. What is peach-like fruit that has no fuzz called?
O Nectarine
O Pear
O Plum
5. What is the height range of the peach tree?13-33ft19-21ft

kupidonia.com

 6. Name a disease commonly contracted by peach trees? Leaf curl Stem wither Flower death 7. What are flat peaches also known as? Pan Tao Man Tao Yo Tao 8. Another fruit that is produced by the tree that bears peaches is?
 Stem wither Flower death 7. What are flat peaches also known as? Pan Tao Man Tao Yo Tao
 Flower death 7. What are flat peaches also known as? Pan Tao Man Tao Yo Tao
7. What are flat peaches also known as? Pan Tao Man Tao Yo Tao
Pan TaoMan TaoYo Tao
Pan TaoMan TaoYo Tao
○ Man Tao○ Yo Tao
O Yo Tao
8. Another fruit that is produced by the tree that bears peaches is?
8. Another fruit that is produced by the tree that bears peaches is?
O Pear
O Nectarine
O Plum
9. Peach is the state fruit of which state?
O Alaska
O California
O Georgia
10. A typical peach tree will start bearing fruit in which year of its life?
O 3rd
O 4th
O 5th

Peaches Quiz: questions and answers

Right answers

1. Which family do peaches belong to?

Rosaceae

2. Which country is the second largest producer of peaches after China? Spain

3. Peach fruit is native to which country?

Northwest China

4. What is peach-like fruit that has no fuzz called?

Nectarine

5. What is the height range of the peach tree?

13-33ft

6. Name a disease commonly contracted by peach trees?

Leaf curl

7. What are flat peaches also known as?

Pan Tao

8. Another fruit that is produced by the tree that bears peaches is?

Nectarine

9. Peach is the state fruit of which state?

Georgia

10. A typical peach tree will start bearing fruit in which year of its life?

3rd