

Philosophy Quiz: Trivia Questions and Answers

1. Who coined the term "philosophy"?

- Akalanka
- Socrates
- Pythagoras

2. Natural philosophy encompasses the following EXCEPT:

- Geography
- Astronomy
- Medicine

3. What is the study concerned with the fundamental nature of reality or being called?

- Logic Philosophy
- Metaphysics
- Political Philosophy

4. The study concerned about the nature and grounds of knowledge and its validity is:

- Epistemology
- Natural Philosophy
- Metaphysics

5. What is the study of the physical world called?

- Epistemology
- Natural Philosophy
- Metaphysics

6. The study of goodness, right and wrong, justice, beauty, moral and virtue is:

- Ethics Philosophy
- Logic Philosophy
- Moral Physiology

7. The study of the philosophical tradition of the western world is:

- Western philosophy
- Political Philosophy
- Logic Philosophy

8. Who wrote the book titled "Justice: whats the right thing to do"?

- Socrates
- Harry Frankfurt
- Michael Sandel

9. What is logic?

- A study of reasoning and argument
- A study of the inevitability of events
- A study of human sexuality

10. Where was philosophy first specialized?

- Germany
- Greece
- Czech Republic

Philosophy Quiz: Trivia Questions and Answers

Right answers

1. Who coined the term "philosophy"?
Pythagoras
2. Natural philosophy encompasses the following EXCEPT:
Geography
3. What is the study concerned with the fundamental nature of reality or being called?
Metaphysics
4. The study concerned about the nature and grounds of knowledge and its validity is:
Epistemology
5. What is the study of the physical world called?
Natural Philosophy
6. The study of goodness, right and wrong, justice, beauty, moral and virtue is:
Moral Physiology
7. The study of the philosophical tradition of the western world is:
Western philosophy
8. Who wrote the book titled "Justice: whats the right thing to do"?
Michael Sandel
9. What is logic?
A study of reasoning and argument
10. Where was philosophy first specialized?
Germany