

Pomelo Quiz: Trivia Questions and Answers

1. What is a pomelo?

- A fruit
- A vegetable
- A flower

2. Which continent is pomelo native to?

- Asia
- Europe
- South America

3. Which family does the pomelo belong to?

- Citrus
- Rutaceace
- Rosids

4. What is the fruit known as in Hawaii?

- Pomelo
- Jabong
- Jambola

5. What is the color of ripe pomelo?

- Pale red to yellow
- Pale blue to gray
- Pale green to yellow

6. Which one of these is a non-hybrid pomelo?

- Grapefruit
- Dangyuja
- Banpeiyu

7. In which country is the thick skin of pomelo often used to make a sweet preservation?

- Sri Lanka
- China
- Brazil

8. For which fruit the name pomelo has historically been used?

- Grapefruit
- Apple
- Pear

9. In the festival of mid-autumn or mooncake festival, pomelos are traditionally eaten. In which continent these festivals are celebrated?

- Asia
- Africa
- Europe

10. Which of these vitamins are present in pomelo?

- Thiamine (B1)
- Vitamic C
- Both

Pomelo Quiz: Trivia Questions and Answers

Right answers

1. What is a pomelo?
A fruit
2. Which continent is pomelo native to?
Asia
3. Which family does the pomelo belong to?
Citrus
4. What is the fruit known as in Hawaii?
Jabong
5. What is the color of ripe pomelo?
Pale green to yellow
6. Which one of these is a non-hybrid pomelo?
Dangyuja
7. In which country is the thick skin of pomelo often used to make a sweet preservation?
Brazil
8. For which fruit the name pomelo has historically been used?
Grapefruit
9. In the festival of mid-autumn or mooncake festival, pomelos are traditionally eaten. In which continent these festivals are celebrated?
Asia
10. Which of these vitamins are present in pomelo?
Both