

Prosecco Quiz: questions and answers

1. What is the country of origin of prosecco?

- France
- Italy
- Japan

2. Which variety of grapes is prosecco made of?

- Orion grapes
- Glera grapes
- Chardonel grapes

3. In how many provinces is prosecco DOC produced?

- 9
- 5
- 6

4. Who was the first to mention the name "prosecco"?

- Aaron Wright
- Fynes Moryson
- Baldwin Smith

5. When was Prosecco introduced into the mainstream United State market?

- 2003
- 2000

2002

6. How many bottles of Italian Prosecco are produced annually?

- 120 million
- 180 million
- 140 million

7. Who is the largest importer of Prosecco in the United States?

- Mionetto
- Santa Margherita
- Francoli

8. What is the method used for producing Prosecco called?

- Ancestral method
- Charmat-Martinotti method
- Dioise method

9. What is the alcohol percentage of prosecco?

- 10.5—11.5%
- 7.5—10%
- 13—18%

10. How many varieties of Prosecco Superiore D.O.C.G. are available on the market?

- 4
- 5
- 2

Prosecco Quiz: questions and answers

Right answers

1. What is the country of origin of prosecco?
Italy
2. Which variety of grapes is prosecco made of?
Glera grapes
3. In how many provinces is prosecco DOC produced?
9
4. Who was the first to mention the name "prosecco"?
Fynes Moryson
5. When was Prosecco introduced into the mainstream United State market?
2000
6. How many bottles of Italian Prosecco are produced annually?
180 million
7. Who is the largest importer of Prosecco in the United States?
Mionetto
8. What is the method used for producing Prosecco called?
Charmat-Martinotti method
9. What is the alcohol percentage of prosecco?
10.5—11.5%
10. How many varieties of Prosecco Superiore D.O.C.G. are available on the market?
2