

Quechua people Quiz: questions and answers

1. Where did Quechua come from?

- Central coast of Peru
- Colombia
- Brazil

2. How much people in Peru speak the Quechua language?

- 2.4 million
- 4.4 million
- 3 million

3. When was Quechua became Peru's second official language?

- 1965
- 1970
- 1969

4. Quinine, which is found naturally in the bark of cinchona tree, is known to be used by Quechuas people what for?

- Cancer cure
- Malaria-like symptoms cure
- Stomach problems cure

5. Which animal's name is derived from a Spanish word meaning "little armored one"?

- Tortoise
- Rhinoceros

Armadillo

6. What is the currency of Peru?

Nuevo Sol

Escuda

Dollar

7. Which Inca king turned the small Cuzco city-state into the largest empire in pre-Columbian history?

Atahualpa

Huayna Capac

Pachacuti Inca

8. How did the Inca call their own empire?

Vilcabamba

Tahuantinsuyu

Peru

9. On the Inca trail, you could find many tambos. What are they?

Relay stations

Courthouses

Schools

10. The Inca used quipus to do their accountancy. What exactly are they?

Papyrus scrolls

Coloured strings with knots

Clay tablets with inscriptions

Quechua people Quiz: questions and answers

Right answers

1. Where did Quechua come from?

Central coast of Peru

2. How much people in Peru speak the Quechua language?

4.4 million

3. When was Quechua became Peru's second official language?

1969

4. Quinine, which is found naturally in the bark of cinchona tree, is known to be used by Quechua people what for?

Malaria-like symptoms cure

5. Which animal's name is derived from a Spanish word meaning "little armored one"?

Armadillo

6. What is the currency of Peru?

Nuevo Sol

7. Which Inca king turned the small Cuzco city-state into the largest empire in pre-Columbian history?

Pachacuti Inca

8. How did the Inca call their own empire?

Tahuantinsuyu

9. On the Inca trail, you could find many tambos. What are they?

Relay stations

10. The Inca used quipus to do their accountancy. What exactly are they?

Coloured strings with knots