

Rays Quiz: questions and answers

1. What is the scientific name for rays?

- Salmon
- Batoidea
- Pomfret

2. What is the shape of Batoidea fish?

- Flat-bodied
- Like a whale
- Round-bodied

3. How does Batoidea respire?

- Through the gall bladders
- Through the spiracles and gills
- Through mouth

4. How do rays reproduce?

- It is naturally fertile
- It exposes eggs
- It conserves sperms

5. How deep in waters do rays live?

- 10,000 ft
- 500 ft

9,800 ft

6. Which of the following fish comes in close relatives of rays?

- A trout
- A shark
- A cod

7. How do rays move?

- By flapping fins like wings
- By moving the full body
- Like a snake

8. Which type of skeleton do rays have?

- Cartilaginous
- Bony
- Exoskeleton

9. Which phylum do rays relate to?

- Chordata
- Annelid
- Cnidaria

10. Which species of rays live in the open water?

- Thornback ray
- Southern stingrays
- Manta Rays

Rays Quiz: questions and answers

Right answers

1. What is the scientific name for rays?
Batoidea
2. What is the shape of Batoidea fish?
Flat-bodied
3. How does Batoidea respire?
Through the spiracles and gills
4. How do rays reproduce?
It conserves sperms
5. How deep in waters do rays live?
9,800 ft
6. Which of the following fish comes in close relatives of rays?
A shark
7. How do rays move?
By flapping fins like wings
8. Which type of skeleton do rays have?
Cartilaginous
9. Which phylum do rays relate to?
Chordata
10. Which species of rays live in the open water?
Manta Rays