

Rene Magritte Quiz: questions and answers

1. Who was René Magritte?

- A German minimalist
- A Belgian surrealist
- A French expressionist

2. Where was René Magritte born?

- Lessines
- Gerpennes
- Jurbise

3. Where and on what date was Magritte born?

- Belgium, November 21, 1898
- Norway, February 23, 1888
- Croatia, October 22, 1899

4. What René Magritte was known for?

- His witty plays
- His provocative words
- His witty and provocative images

5. Who was the father of Magritte?

- Tailor and textile merchant
- Musician

Engineer

6. When did Magritte marry Georgette Berger?

- 1922
- 1920
- 1913

7. What was Magritte's most remarkable work?

- Elective Affinities
- Treachery of the Images
- Collective Invention

8. Which work did he publish in the year 1.938?

- Time Transfixed
- Golconda
- The Alarm Clock

9. When, why and where did Magritte die?

- August 15, 1967, Belgium, Lung Cancer
- October 26, 1957, Spain, a Heart attack
- July 19, 1987, France, Diabetes

10. What was the basement of the conceptual force of Magritte?

- Play of ambiguous images and their meaning through words
- Play of real and unreal images
- Play of images and false paintings

Rene Magritte Quiz: questions and answers

Right answers

1. Who was René Magritte?
A Belgian surrealist
2. Where was René Magritte born?
Lessines
3. Where and on what date was Magritte born?
Belgium, November 21, 1898
4. What René Magritte was known for?
His witty and provocative images
5. Who was the father of Magritte?
Tailor and textile merchant
6. When did Magritte marry Georgette Berger?
1922
7. What was Magritte's most remarkable work?
Treachery of the Images
8. Which work did he publish in the year 1938?
Time Transfixed
9. When, why and where did Magritte die?
August 15, 1967, Belgium, Lung Cancer
10. What was the basement of the conceptual force of Magritte?
Play of ambiguous images and their meaning through words