

Salamander Quiz: questions and answers

1. What is a salamander?

- A member of the genus Canis
- A large aquatic reptiles
- A group of amphibians

2. How is the appearance of the salamander characterized?

- Like a lizard
- Like a cat
- Like a fish

3. Where the salamander diversity is most abundant?

- Southern Hemisphere
- Northern Hemisphere
- Eastern Hemisphere

4. Under which order, salamander families are grouped?

- Amphibia
- Chordata
- Urodela

5. What do salamanders lack?

- Eardrum
- Ear cavity

Both

6. How do larval salamanders breathe?

- Using the eyes
- Through the skin
- By means of gills

7. What are the colors that identify the toxicity of salamanders?

- Blue, white and orange
- Orange, red and brown
- Yellow, orange and red

8. What is one of the few species of living amphibians that occurs in brackish or brackish water?

- Fire salamander
- The northern slimy salamander
- Anderson's salamander

9. What were the first fossils of salamander?

- Karaurus sharovi
- Salamandroidea and Kaurus sharovi
- Kokartus honorarius and Marmorerpeton

10. Where is the salamander brandy from?

- Czech Republic
- Slovenia
- Spain

Salamander Quiz: questions and answers

Right answers

1. What is a salamander?

A group of amphibians

2. How is the appearance of the salamander characterized?

Like a lizard

3. Where the salamander diversity is most abundant?

Northern Hemisphere

4. Under which order, salamander families are grouped?

Urodela

5. What do salamanders lack?

Both

6. How do larval salamanders breathe?

By means of gills

7. What are the colors that identify the toxicity of salamanders?

Yellow, orange and red

8. What is one of the few species of living amphibians that occurs in brackish or brackish water?

Anderson's salamander

9. What were the first fossils of salamander?

Kokartus honorarius and Marmorerpeton

10. Where is the salamander brandy from?

Slovenia