

Shoes Quiz: questions and answers

1. What is the name of shoes which are designed specifically for mountaineering or skiing?

- Orthopedic shoes
- Athletic shoes
- Boot shoes

2. What is the material that usually isn't used for shoemaking?

- Plastic
- Wood
- Leather

3. Where was the sagebrush bark sandals dating from approximately 7000 or 8000 BC found?

- California
- Oregon
- Nevada

4. What was the material of the world's oldest leather shoe?

- Snake skin
- Crocodile skin
- Cowhide

5. What was the material for shoes of natives of North America?

- Leather
- Wood

Canvas

6. What are the precursors of the modern flip-flops?

Esparto sandals

Thong sandals

Moccasin

7. What was the common casual shoes in the Pyrenees during the Middle Ages?

Moccasin

Boot

Espadrille

8. Which of this shoe element can be found in all types of shoes?

Shoelace

Sole

Eyelets

9. What is the name of a layer in a shoe which has direct contact with the ground?

Midsole

Outsole

Insole

10. Which kind of sport Chuck Taylor's shoes were invented for?

Football

Running

Basketball

Shoes Quiz: questions and answers

Right answers

1. What is the name of shoes which are designed specifically for mountaineering or skiing?
Boot shoes
2. What is the material that usually isn't used for shoemaking?
Plastic
3. Where was the sagebrush bark sandals dating from approximately 7000 or 8000 BC found?
Oregon
4. What was the material of the world's oldest leather shoe?
Cowhide
5. What was the material for shoes of natives of North America?
Leather
6. What are the precursors of the modern flip-flops?
Thong sandals
7. What was the common casual shoes in the Pyrenees during the Middle Ages?
Espadrille
8. Which of this shoe element can be found in all types of shoes?
Sole
9. What is the name of a layer in a shoe which has direct contact with the ground?
Outsole
10. Which kind of sport Chuck Taylor's shoes were invented for?
Basketball