

Shotgun Quiz: questions and answers

1. During the 19th century, shotguns were mainly employed by:

- Marines
- Infantry units
- Cavalry units

2. When was the Bron Bess musket in service with the British army?

- From 1722 to 1838
- From 1622 to 1738
- From 1702 to 1818

3. Which are by far the most common gauges?

- 67 and 32
- 12 and 20
- 28 and 24

4. What is the most commonly used round in shotguns?

- Buckshot
- Slugs
- Shotshells

5. What is a dragon's breath?

- A zirconium-based pyrotechnic shotgun round
- Rounds made of two or more slugs molded onto steel wire

Rounds sometimes carried by hunters for safety and rescue purposes

6. Where is the Mossberg 590A1 shotgun from?

- Germany
- United States
- Canada

7. What is the weight of a Benelli M4?

- 2.83 kg
- 7.15 kg
- 3.82 kg

8. Who designed the Winchester Model 1887?

- Oscar Frederick Mossberg
- John Browning
- Giovanni Benelli

9. What is the rate of fire of the Auto Assault-12 (AA-12)?

- 200 rounds per minute
- 300 rounds per minute
- 250 rounds per minute

10. What is the unit cost of a SRM Arms Model 1216?

- US$1,799 - US$3,500
- US$1,499 - US$2,500
- US$999,99 - US$1,500

Shotgun Quiz: questions and answers

Right answers

1. During the 19th century, shotguns were mainly employed by:
Cavalry units
2. When was the Bron Bess musket in service with the British army?
From 1722 to 1838
3. Which are by far the most common gauges?
12 and 20
4. What is the most commonly used round in shotguns?
Shotshells
5. What is a dragon's breath?
A zirconium-based pyrotechnic shotgun round
6. Where is the Mossberg 590A1 shotgun from?
United States
7. What is the weight of a Benelli M4?
3.82 kg
8. Who designed the Winchester Model 1887?
John Browning
9. What is the rate of fire of the Auto Assault-12 (AA-12)?
300 rounds per minute
10. What is the unit cost of a SRM Arms Model 1216?
US$1,499 - US$2,500